

Inglewood Musical Arts Society Announces Fall Season's Program

South Bay-Centinel Valley music lovers may look forward to another season of good music from Inglewood Musical Arts society concerts. "Command Performance" is the theme of the 1965-1966 season with the best of 17 years' programs being brought back for an encore. Society board members met recently for a dinner party and planning session for the 18th concert season at the home of Mrs. Fred Rosenthal, president.

Primary item on the agenda of the business meeting was announcement of the coming season's attractions.

OPENING THE fall season on Oct. 9 will be the Ballet La Jeunesse, which has been receiving greater and greater national acclaim since its IMA performance two years ago.

This program and the Franz Lehar operetta, "Land of Smiles," will be in Green Auditorium at Inglewood High School.

"Land of Smiles," which is making its West Coast premier with IMA in February, will be sung by the artists of the Mildred Stombs Warrenskjold Studios.

ALL OTHER concerts will be in Crozier Auditorium, Inglewood, where last season's programs appeared.

The November program will feature the perpetual favorites of IMA and all Inglewood and South Bay music lovers, duo-pianists Simmons and Scharl.

The popular pianists have recently been made honorary members of the Fine Arts Club of Pasadena.

In January, the cellist who made such a hit in his recent appearance for IMA, Gabor Retjo, will play. He will be accompanied again this season by his charming and talented wife, Alice.

VERSATILE violinist Stanley Plummer will perform in May.

Climax of the year's programs, as well as culmination of a full year's work by Young Artist Contest Director Mrs. Garfield T. Murray, will be "Debut," the presentation of the three young musicians who win the competition.

Mrs. Murray is already at work on the contest, selecting the judges and preparing the application mailings. She is enlisting top-flight musicians to judge the preliminary auditions.

The Young Artists Concert and its ultimate purpose, the support and promotion of fine music and musicians, is the real reason for the existence of IMA, according to Mrs. Rosenthal.

SCHOLARSHIPS given to the winners of the competition are accumulated through the season by the ticket sales.

Mrs. Rosenthal urged the Board members to remind all Inglewood and South Bay music lovers to get their season tickets early.

Brochures containing full information and details will be mailed to last year's IMA members and guests who signed the guest register.

BUSY WRITERS . . . Don Burton of Torrance High discusses some changes in copy for the Red Cross Leadership Training Center newspaper with Ellen Ferrier of Venice High School. The two students are among some 400 high school boys and girls who have completed the Red Cross trainee program for camp counselors.
