

Hospital Auxiliary To Sponsor 'Hello Follies'

Show Biz Attracts Auxiliary

With a touch of Broadway, Torrance Hospital Auxiliary will stage a fabulous production, "Hello Follies," on two nights, Oct. 29 and 30 at the Torrance High School auditorium. A professional New York producer has been engaged to direct the benefit, proceeds from which will be used to expand the diagnostic facilities at the hospital. Talent from the entire South Bay area is being sought for the show. Lining up committee chairmen for the big event are, from left, Mrs. James E. Kimble, who is serving as general chairman, Mrs. John Popovich, who will handle the advertising, and Mrs. James McClaran, right, serving as co-publicity chairman.

Seek South Bay Talent For Benefit Performance

Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will sponsor "Hello Follies" Oct. 29 and 30, with Mrs. James E. Kimble as general chairman.

Proceeds from the "Follies" will be used for the expansion of diagnostic facilities including laboratory, x-ray and emergency services at Torrance Memorial Hospital, a non-profit community facility.

The production will feature all local talent, hospital auxiliary members, hospital personnel, civic club members, etc. Mrs. Kimble said, "we feel that this is a real community project appealing to the entire South Bay area."

The Follies will be held at Torrance High School Auditorium and will be under the direction of a professional New York producer.

Other committee chairmen for the event are Mmes. William C. Boswell, program; John E. Popovich, advertising; Lawrence Brown, tickets; Don Moyer, publicity; William Mac Cabe, patrons; Albert Kline, costumes; and Kenneth Miller, cabaret.

Auxiliary members are presently seeking talent for the production and invite the participation from those who would like to be patrons or advertisers.

Hadassah Schedules

Members' Tea

South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will welcome new members and acquaint local women with the aims and accomplishments of the national organization at a membership tea to be given Tuesday, Aug. 3, at 1:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Ben Duben, 4128 Silverleaf Rd., Rolling Hills.

Mrs. Bernard Wechsberg, president, announced that Miss Sally Mintz of Los Angeles, just returned from Israel, will speak. Miss Mintz visited the Hadassah Medical Center, where she viewed the stained glass windows in the chapel created by the world-renowned painter, Marc Chagall. She will report on the work of the hospital, as well as her impressions and experiences during her recent extensive tour of Israel.

Mrs. Max Stern of Torrance will pour. Hostesses for the event will be Mmes. Louis Fridhandler, Palos Verdes; Bess Binder, Palos Verdes; Walter Raine, Manhattan Beach; Harry Hyman, Redondo; Dorothy Rosenberg, Redondo; Boris Rothberg, San Pedro; William Anton, Torrance, and Charles Luger, Torrance. Women interested in Hadassah are invited to call Mrs. Charles Luger, 3427 W. 225th St., Torrance.

Working at Grand Slam

As they enjoy a luncheon followed by bridge and swimming, Alpha Gamma Delta Alums will lay the groundwork for two important fall events, their Punch-Brunch and "Arts and Treasures." Working out a grand slam, in preparation for the summer party to be held July 29 at the William Smith home in Palos Verdes, are, from left, Mmes. Clayton Elm and James Post, aided by Mrs. Richard Linde who has been enjoying a swim.

Fall Agenda To Be Launched At

Alpha Gamma Swim-Bridge

Annual Swim-Bridge party of the South Bay Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae Club will be held on July 29. Mrs. William Smith, 273 Rocky Point Rd., Palos Verdes Estates, will be hostess to members and their guests as they enjoy luncheon followed by an afternoon of bridge and swimming. Mrs. Daniel McDonald of Manhattan Beach is chairman of the day's activities.

This summer fun serves a more serious purpose. It marks the start of ticket sales for the club's major fund-raising event, the Ninth Annual Punch-Brunch, to be held this year at the Los Verdes Country Club on Saturday, Sept. 25. Mrs. W. W. Williams of Palos Verdes Estates will handle the distribution of tickets. Mrs. Richard M. Wonder of Wilmington, general chairman, will be on hand to tell the group of the plans underway to make this year's Punch-Brunch an even greater success than previous years. Proceeds will go to the National Society of Crippled Children and toward a scholarship for a handicapped graduate of a local high school.

Closely following the Punch-Brunch will be the Alpha Gamma Delta Los Angeles Area Council Benefit, "Arts and Treasures," a gala soiree to be held on Wednesday, Sept. 29. General chairman of the event, sponsored by the 12 alumnae clubs of Los Angeles and Orange counties, will be Mrs. Donald Clay of Manhattan Beach, a member of the local group. Mrs. Clay and Mrs. Thomas Mills of Portuguese Bend, local ticket chairman, will announce plans and distribute tickets for this important philanthropic event during the Swim-Bridge party.

All alumnae and undergraduate actives new to this area are cordially invited to attend the Swim-Bridge. Reservations may be made with the club's president, Mrs. John F. Duston, Jr. of Palos Verdes Estates.

New Home 'Warmed'

A regular bridge club meeting with Mrs. J. G. Louvier as hostess, turned out to be a surprise housewarming last Wednesday evening when bridge club members arrived, escorted by their husbands, for a party at the Louviers' new home at 4840 Browndeer Lane, Rolling Hills. Mr. and Mrs. Louvier were presented with a gift for their new home. Guests enjoyed a dessert and other refreshments supplied by club members. An evening of bridge and tripoli followed. Attending the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Davis, William Gardner, Edwin Hatter, William Rogers, Lee Clotworthy; Dr. and Mrs. Allen Hofferber. Unable to attend were Messrs. and Mmes. R. K. Petrait and Clifford Trezise.
