Exciting news from Johnny and Cindy Pappas about their brand new Barbary Coast Room in the Mariner Hotel at 2450 Pacific Coast Highway, Torrance. The new room, rebuilt, enlarged and redecorated, will be the showplace for a great many top entertainers and bands doing their nightly stints in a true Barbary Coast atmosphere. Opening Tuesday, Aug. 17, the stage and bandstand in the new Barbary Coast Room will be occupied by Gil and Niki and a company of musicians, singers and dancers who come directly from a record shattering run at the Sahara in Las Vegas.

Gil and Niki, who also broke up everything prior to their Vegas triumph at the Wagon Wheel in Lake Tahoe, will remain at the Barbary Coast Room for two weeks.

But with alert, alive and rarin' to go Johnny and Cindy Pappas, one good thing will follow another.

Following Gil and Niki's two week engagement, The Town Pipers will take over and once again the Barbary Coast Room will jump to the entertainment heights. The Town Pipers are currently following in the Las Vegas and Lake Tahoe footsteps of Gil and Niki, appearing to packed houses at the Sahara and Wagon Wheel, respectively. As they used to sing in that old but very great song, "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," and of course "eonight" means Tuesday, Aug. 17, and every night thereafter, there certainly will be a hot time at the Barbary Coast Room in the Mariner Hotel.

Great food, too, is the promise of the hosts, Johnny and Cindy.

Also in the tournament of discerning and gregarious business men is the Smith Bros. Indian Restaurant in Torrance. In response to numerous requests, the mid-day menu is now available in the cocktail lounge, the "Firewater Room," where peace and quiet are enjoyed by busy executives who like to settle unhurried deals over superb food. The luncheon menu is a joy to behold, making the Indian Village Restaurant a perfectly wonderful Proceeds went to the Redondo Beach sister cities program in La Paz and Ensenada.

HOME OF THE STARS
Redondo Beach Yacht Harbor was home base for a weekend to more than 80 Hollywood personalities, as they played a charity golf tournament sponsored by the harbor lessees.

Naturally, many of the Hollywood Hackers stayed at packed houses at the Sahara Mary Davis' Portofino Inn, located on a peninsula in the center of the harbor. In true Hacker tradition, such show business names as singer Buck Young and actor Ed Platt gave impromptu vocal performances in the Crows Nest with pianist Camille Howard and in the Portofino Lounge with the Bobby Rinard Trio.
