Walteria Business Women

Seat Officers

Walteria Business Women's Club installed its new officers in a candlelight ceremony at a dinner meeting at the Wayfarers restaurant recently.

Assuming the presidency of the club was Mrs. Frank Burk. Installed to serve with her were Mmes. Paul Krogstad, vice-president; Hugh Hanapol, recording secretary; Pat Hogue, treasurer, and Lou Daraban, corresponding secretary.

The first event staged under the direction of the new board was a benefit progressive dinner party, proceeds from which are used as a scholarship fund. The club, following tradition, will award a scholarship to an outstanding female senior at South High School in June.

The next project planned by the Business Women is a Funno Party and Spaghetti dinner on May 14. The dinner and party will be held at the Walteria Business Men's clubhouse, 25000 Madison St., in Walteria. The public is invited to attend.

The spaghetti dinner will be followed by an evening of games with prizes galore for the winners.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Frank Burk or Mrs. Paul Krogstad.

ASSUME LEADERSHIP

New officers of the Walteria Business Women, installed recently, plot their course for the future to carry on their work for youth and other philanthropies. To direct the career women's club during the coming year are from left, Mmes. Paul Krogstad, vice-president; Louis Daraban, corresponding secretary; Frank Burk, president; Hugh Hanapol, recording secretary; and Pat Hogue, treasurer. Each June the club presents a scholarship to a deserving South High senior girl. (Press-Herald Photo)

New Sertoma Club Organized

Auxiliary Gets Approval

A Torrance Chapter of Sertoma, one of the oldest international service clubs for business and professional men, received its charter in February. The new club will be known as the Torrance Sertoma Club and the membership will encompass the South Bay area. Dr. Edward Mitchell is serving as the club's charter president.

Aim of this service club is to promote friendship and fellowship and to promote the ideals of service especially in the field of youth.

This week, Mrs. Florence Schenong, governor of the West Los Angeles District, announced that the formation of a new La Sertoma Club of Torrance, consisting of the wives of sertoma members, has been approved by the executive committee of La Sertoma International.

The new auxiliary will hold its installation luncheon at Filipone's restaurant, 4525 Calle Mayor, Friday at noon.

Officers to be installed are Mmes. James Layden, president; R. C. Childress, first vice president; E. O. Mitchell, second vice president; W. R. Watson, secretary; and Jamie W. Wallace, Jr., treasurer.

La Sertoma will receive its charter at a dinner planned for June at the Hunting Horn restaurant on Palos Verdes Peninsula.

The auxiliary plans to initiate worthwhile community projects to fulfill its service-to-mankind goal.
