Newberry's Park Plaza Store to Open Tomorrow

Grand opening of J. J. Newberry's newest Southern California store, located at 940 N. Western Ave., in San Pedro's Park Plaza Shopping Center, will be celebrated tomorrow, according to Darryl Carlson, manager of the new store.

DARRYL CARLSON Store Manager

The most modern of the nation's Newberry stores, the Park Plaza store will offer customers pleasant shopping facilities in some 58,900 feet of space. A 5,000 square foot Holland House restaurant is adjacent to the store. Mrs. Marie Price will manage the Holland House, which will feature cafeteria service from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. weekdays and from noon until 7 p.m. on Sundays. It is the only Holland House in the Harbor Area.

MORE THAN 125 persons will be employed at the new store, Carlson reports. Assistant managers are Ernest Greene, formerly with the Newberry stores in downtown Torrance and at Rolling Hills Plaza, and Dennis Murphy.

Carlson, a native Californian, began working for the Newberry Co. 12 years ago in Modesto. He has managed the Florence Avenue store in Los Angeles and moves to San Pedro after three years as manager of the Newberry store in Oakland, Calif.

Customers will have a wide variety of flexible credit plans available at the Park Plaza store, including the newest instant credit plan offered by Newberry stores. A regular 30-day charge account, or flexible accounts tailored to individual needs will be available. In addition, the new store will offer credit coupon books which may be used as cash in any Newberry store.

DEPARTMENTS in the new store will offer clothing for every member of the family, home furnishings, housewares, cameras and photographic equipment, yard goods and draperies, toys, a modern pet shop, outdoor shop, appliances, garden supplies and plants, phonograph records, and a huge infants' department.

The store has been planned and designed with an eye to customer convenience and eye appeal. Many new and convenient techniques in merchandise displays have been included. Hours are 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sundays.

The J. J. Newberry Co., headquartered in New York, is headed by W. C. Straus, a veteran of many years with the firm. Divisional offices are located in Los Angeles, Boston, St. Louis, and Omaha, Neb.

Meeting Slated by Colleges

"The Impact of Federal Legislation on the Junior College" will be theme of the spring meeting of the California Junior College Association, to be held at Harbor College Saturday.

Mrs. Grace Edwards, technical arts instructor, and Wallace Cohen, dean of the social science division, will represent El Camino College at the meeting. Dr. Jack Martin of El Camino currently is serving as the executive secretary of the organization.

Mrs. June Nelson, a music instructor at El Camino, will participate on a panel which will discuss the Re-Evaluation of the Requirements for Keyboard Skills for Music Majors.

Dr. Thomas B. Merson, director of research for the association, will discuss the effects of federal legislation on the junior college at the general session.

Brummel Opens Local Campaign Headquarters

Torrance headquarters of the Citizens Committee to Elect Stan Brummel State Senator have been opened at 28828 S. Crenshaw Blvd. and 1311 Cabrillo St., according to Councilman George S. Vico, Torrance chairman.

Phone numbers are 325-7695 and 325-7811. According to Vico, "Any resident of Torrance is cordially invited to work with his friends and neighbors in electing Stan Brummel to represent our area in Sacramento."

Vico issued an invitation to all members of organized labor, college students living in the district, and women who would like to work in a campaign to "insure the best possible representation for the 32nd District in our state capitol. Other headquarters to Elect Brummel State Senator have been opened in San Pedro, 1221 S. Pacific Ave.; Wilmington, 725 Pacific Coast Hwy, and Gardena, 14815 S. Western Ave.

Brummel is a Commissioner for Parks and Recreation for the City of Los Angeles, a member of the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Commission, and has been a leader in 32nd District community affairs.

The 32nd District covers Gardena, Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City, San Pedro, Wilmington, the Port of Long Beach, the western part of Compton, a large portion of Watts and Catalina and San Clemente Islands.

Teacher In Senate Campaign

A Torrance teacher and long-time resident, Victor Di Biasi, 36, of 1822 W. 244th St., is campaigning for the State Senate in the new 32nd district.

He grew up in San Pedro, graduating from San Pedro High School, where he was student body president and active in athletics. He was class president at Harbor Junior College and holds bachelor's and master's degrees in social science from Long Beach State College.

For the past 10 years he has taught history and government at North High School and previously taught at Roosevelt Junior High School in Compton.

"THE NEW office of State Senator will need an energetic, fulltime legislator, and if I am elected, my total commitment will be to serve the people of the district," he declared.

VICTOR DI BIASI Makes Senate Bid

The main problems he sees for the area include education, taxes, opportunity for minorities, jobs, and population growth.

An active Democratic worker in the past four elections, he is a member of the Spirit of '76 Democratic Club in the Lomita-South Torrance area, and delegate to the 68th Assembly District Council. He is a member of the American Federation of Teachers, Local 1301, and that local's delegate to the Los Angeles County Federation of Labor. Previously, he has been a member of the Retail Clerk's Union and the International Association of Machinists. He attends St. Margaret Mary's Church in Lomita.

He is married and the father of two daughters, Lisa, 9, and Melissa, 3. His wife, Carol, a Narbonne High and Harbor College graduate, has been active in the Heart Fund campaign.
