Further details about the plan, along with instructions and other information, will be given to residents during the next two weeks.

IN OTHER action last night, the council:

• Postponed, for one week, action on a proposed ordinance which would require a permit for parades in the city.

• Granted a 30-day extension on the deadline previously set for a Planning Department report concerning a master plan for the Victor Precinct. The area is being studied, at the request of the council, for possible high-rise zoning uses.

• Approved an appropriation of $7,000 from gas tax funds for study of the city's north-south select street system. The possible alignment of Madrona Avenue, Maple

Sunday afternoon and fed to the alligators.

The story began Sunday morning when Wilson and his two sons, Steve and Craig, set out in search of marine fossils in a Peninsula ravine.

The trio saw a dozing rattler and Wilson — who has captured snakes before — seized him behind the head.

The snake, resisting Wilson's efforts to stuff him into a sack, twisted and bit Wilson on the left forefinger.

Wilson put a tourniquet on the finger and — with the two boys — quickly drove to the Palos Verdes Police Station.

He was rushed from there to South Bay Hospital.

The father was sent home Monday after he was treated for the snakebite.

Steve, older of the two boys, said the snake was killed and taken home, where later Sunday afternoon, it became alligator food.

The alligators, for the record, are all that remain of a family zoo which used to include several snakes.

Three of the 'gators are about four feet long, while the fourth is a short 18 inches or so.

Avenue, and Prairie Avenue will be reviewed.

• Ordered drawings prepared for the completion of the second story of the new police station addition, now under construction.

• Approved a change in hours of the street sweeping operations. Under the new system, major streets will be cleaned between 11:30 p.m. and 8 a.m., while residential areas will be swept between 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.
