Dills Says He Leads Polls in 32nd Race

Political observers at Sacramento this week predicted the nomination of Judge Ralph C. Dills on the Democratic ticket in the 32nd Senatorial District on June 7.

Four independent political polls in the last six weeks have been taken and Dills has continued to place first in each, his backers report.

The pollsters attribute the Dills lead and popularity to the outstanding qualifications, legislative and judicial record of the popular jurist and former Assemblyman.

Dills is widely known in Southern California as a Democratic party campaigner, college teacher, judge, State Assemblyman, and youth leader with the Boy Scouts and Southern Area Boys Club.

Dills is the only candidate with State Legislative experience. He is a graduate of Gardena High, Compton College, UCLA, USC, and Loyola University School of Law, and has been admitted to practice law before the United States Supreme Court
