'Nobody Loves an Albatross' Hits Chapel Theatre June 3-July 2

Opening Friday at Chapel Theatre will be the comedy "Nobody Loves an Albatross" directed by Warren Lavender of Torrance.

This is one comedy that takes you away from all the cares of the world to bring you into life behind the scenes of the television world. The hilarious situations and incidents pieced together by author Ronald Alexander will bring you laugh-filled entertainment as the many characters making up staff and friends of Nat Bentley are introduced.

Nat is a television writer whose bravado and arrogance is a shield for his somewhat childlike heart. His career is furthered by his use of the people around him, thus likened to the Albatross, who is the largest of the sea birds of prey. Of course, his daughter Diane (Janetta Held of Torrance) is blinded by all this in the adoration of her father.

THE ROMANTIC lead will be played by newcomer to Chapel, Celeste Clinton of Seal Beach as Jean; the housekeeper Sarah will be portrayed by Ellen Vogl of Torrance; Phil by Mike O'Neil of Hermosa Beach; Hildy by Billie Galleran of Palos Verdes Peninsula; L. T. by Earl Meredith of Venice; Marge by Linda Scarlino of Westminster; Bert by Rodger Lowe of Rolling Hills; Mike by Alan Roberts of San Pedro; Sean by Philip Edmondson of Lomita; Linda by Randi Alpert of Palos Verdes Peninsula and Victor by William Sullivan of Los Angeles. Production crew is headed by Jean Ellsworth, producer; set design by Phyllis Palmer; recording by Lynda Grochester; light and sound technician George Bingham; script manager, Billie Galleran; props by Rene Galleran; stage decorator by Marvin Armour. There will be five weekend performances, Fridays through Sundays, through July 2nd. Curtain is 8:30 p.m. at Chapel Theatre located behind Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant, 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy.

At Conference

Attending a conference on convulsive disorders at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco June 10 will be Dr. Irene E. Greenhut, school physician for the Torrance Unified School District.

Journalism Instructors Form Chapter

Journalism teachers of the Torrance, South Bay and Centinela Valley areas organized this week to establish a local chapter of the Journalism Education Association and named Miss Helen Sinsbaugh, Redondo Union High School teacher, as president. Guy R. Old Jr. of North High was elected vice president and Miss Beverly Janus of El Segundo High School will serve as secretary-treasurer for the new group.

THE HIGH school journalism teachers hope to promote scholastic journalism by sponsoring a writing tournament during the 1966-67 school year.

Other proposed plans include helping newly-assigned journalism teachers and newspaper advisers, discussing teaching materials, exploring communications fields other than newspapers, and cooperating with El Camino College's Communications Department.

IN ADDITION to the three elected officers, charter members of the journalism group include Don Brown of El Camino, Lee Hayashi of Lennox

High, Duncan Parker of Aviation, Clara McGinty of Hawthorne, Tom Rische of South High, Walter Kaplan of Leuzinger, and Dick Wynne of
