

DEDICATED TO SERVICE TO MANKIND

These charter officers of the new La Sertoma Club, together for a last minute session on their banquet tonight, at which the club will receive its charter, lift their glasses on high, toasting a bright future for the South Bay's newest service club. They are, from left, Mmes. Robert Allen, social chairman;

Mike Hammer, telephone chairman; Wayne Watson, secretary; and Arthur Grayson, ways and means chairman. The charter banquet is set for tonight at 8 p.m. at the Hunting Horn with many dignitaries of this international service organization in attendance. (Press-Herald Photo)

Greek Theater Opening Benefit Sponsored by Gamma Alumnae

South Bay Chapter Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae, is joining with the Intercity Council of Gamma Phi Beta as hostesses for the opening night of the Greek Theater on June 30.

This 12th annual benefit will be the premier performance of "The Royal Hunt of the Sun" starring Robert Burr and the original Broadway cast. This is a modern morality play dealing with the conquest of the Inca civilization in 16th century Peru.

Main recipient of this year's benefit will be the Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles. In the South Bay, funds will go to the South Bay Speech and Hearing Clinic, located in the Little Company of Mary Hospital. This clinic is doing an outstanding job of helping many children in the community.

Festivities for the gala opening night will begin with a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zander of Palos Verdes Estates. After cocktails, members and their guests will board chartered buses for their trip to the Greek Theater. Enroute they will be served gourmet box dinners.

Co-chairman of this year's benefit is Mrs. Roger Blanchard, 3133 Via La Selva, Palos Verdes. Mrs. John Hines, 1181 Pescadores Ave., Eastview, is serving as treasurer. Both offices are inter-city, held only for the planning of the Greek Theater Benefit.

Among Gamma Phi Betas and their guests planning to attend are Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Rice, Bent Davis, and James Stanfield, Rolling Hills; Richard Naulty and Robert Jani, Palos Verdes Estates; Joseph Amato, Robert Lee, Samuel Needham, Donald Moses, William Ball, John Rindge, and John Hill, Palos Verdes Peninsula; John Hines, Eastview.

Others are Dr. and Mrs. Richard Steiner and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shirley, Hollywood Riviera; and Mr. and Mrs. John Borland, Palos Verdes Estates. Mrs. Borland is president of the South Bay Chapter Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae.

COCKTAILS, DINNER AND GREEK PREMIER

A gala evening beginning with cocktails, a bus ride on which dinner will be served, topped off with the premier performance of "The Royal Hunt for the Sun" at the Greek Theater is being planned by the South Bay Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae. In the South Bay, funds will go to the South Bay Speech and Hearing Clinic. Alumnae, talking over the June 30 benefit, are, from left Mmes. John Borland, president, and John Rindge, looking over the program, as Mrs. Paul Wynn is being served by Mrs. Paul Zander, hostess for the cocktail party. (Press-Herald photo)

New Torrance Service Organization

La Sertoma to Receive Charter

La Sertoma Club, auxiliary to the newly-organized Sertoma Club of Torrance, will be chartered at a banquet this evening at 8 p.m. at the Hunting Horn restaurant.

Dedicated to "Service to Mankind," the club will honor the charter members, Mmes. R. S. Allen, Keith A. Anderson, R. C. Childress, R. B. Collins, Sam Filippone, Arthur Grayson, E. L. Hammer, James Layden, Milton Makoski, Duane Marshall, Edward O. Mitchell, Ken Spencer, C. L. Spencer, Harry Ulman, J. W. Wallace and Wayne R. Watson.

Executive officers of the new auxiliary are Mmes. James Layden, president; R. C. Childress, first vice-president, in charge of programs; Edward O. Mitchell, second vice-president, in charge of membership; Wayne R. Watson, recording secretary; and J. W. Wallace, treasurer.

Standing committee chairmen are Mmes. Duane A. Marshall, sponsorship; Arthur Grayson, ways and means; R. S. Allen, social; Ken Spencer, bulletin; E. L. Hammer, telephone; Milton Makoski, historian and scrapbook; and Harry Ulman, gifts.

Red velour oversized roses, carrying out the club color and flower, will be used in decorating for the charter ceremony.

Special guests taking part in the program are Mrs. Daniel E. Schenong, governor, West Los Angeles District, La Sertoma International, mistress of ceremonies; and Robert R. Mallicoat, director, Sertoma International, Pacific Southwest Region, master of ceremonies.

Other dignitaries on hand for the chartering will be Mrs. Francis J. Leddy, regional director, La Sertoma International; John Jamar, governor, West Los Angeles district, Sertoma International; and Dr. Edward O. Mitchell, president of the Sertoma Club of Torrance, which was chartered in February.

The address will be given by Dr. John Fernald, past president of Sertoma International.

La Sertoma is an international service organization, whose object is to promote friendship in the spirit of service among wives of Sertomans and foster their support to worthwhile causes.

The 192 clubs throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico assist needy and handicapped. Scholarships are provided each year to assist young people further their educations, and awards are given to youths in recognition for outstanding community service. Further plans of ever-increasing scope are being considered by the newly-chartered club.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JUNE 15, 1966

B-1

Jaycees and Jaycettes Joint Installation

In a joint ceremony at a dinner-dance Saturday evening at a private club, the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Jaycettes will install new officers for the coming year.

Prior to going to the club, officers of both the Jaycees and Jaycettes will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hedde for a cocktail party. Mr. Hedde is the outgoing president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. William Faulds will conduct the Jaycette installation. To be installed are Mmes. Harold Lindborg, president; Richard Spaan, first vice president; James Hussey, second vice-president; Michael Zappitelli, recording secretary; Ralph Grippo, corresponding secretary; and Dempsey Morris, treasurer.

Diana Club Wins State Tributes

Three first place state awards were captured by the Redondo Beach Dianas, at the State Convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, held recently at the Beverly Hilton Hotel, announces Mrs. Paul Mitchell, Diana president.

A first place award was received in Youth Work by Mrs. Peter Kiefer, club youth chairman, for the work done by the club at the Las Palmas School for Girls.

Two first place awards were accepted by Mrs. Bruce Wilkinson, Diana Americanism chairman. One plaque was received for collecting over 70,000 cancelled stamps for "Stamps for the Wounded" and the other award was for donating 5,869 books and magazines to the American Merchant Marine Library Association.

Representing the Dianas at the convention were Mmes. Eric Lindgren, Paul Mitchell, Ray Shortridge, Bruce Wilkinson, William Tolliffe, Lee Hausman and Phil MacBride.

The Redondo Beach Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.

ON THE MARK, GET SET!

New officers of the Jaycettes, who will be installed in a joint ceremony with the Junior Chamber of Commerce officers, Saturday evening at a dinner party, line up for their race into 1966-67. They are, from left, Mmes. M. Zappitelli, recording secretary; R. Grippo, corresponding secretary; J. Hussey, second vice-president; D. Morris, treasurer; R. Spaan, first vice-president; and their president, Mrs. H. Lindborg, ready to fire the starting gun. (Press-Herald Photo)

BRING HOME STATE HONORS

Redondo Beach Dianas walked off with three first place state awards at the recent convention held at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. Mrs. Eric Lindgren, immediate past president, displays one of the first places in Americanism, for donating over 5,000 books and magazines to the American Merchant Marines library; Mrs. Paul Mitchell, new president, holds the other Americanism first place, for donating over 70,000 stamps to the wounded; and Mrs. Peter Kiefer, youth chairman, with her first place certificate. Mrs. Bruce Wilkinson was the prize-winning Americanism chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)