

Policewoman to Live in Philippines

Mrs. Maxine Hahn, a policewoman with the Torrance Police Department for the past 13 years, resigned today. She will sail July 7 aboard the American President Liner SS Cleveland from San Francisco to make her home in Manila, The Philippines.

In January of this year, her husband, John P. Hahn, formerly with the Torrance Police Dept., became a public safety advisor with the Foreign Services Division of the State Department and is now assigned to the American Embassy, Saigon, Viet Nam. The state department is sending Mrs. Hahn and 16-year-old daughter, Cheryl, to Manila and once a month Mr. Hahn will visit his family.

Policewoman Hahn joined the local department in 1953 when there were only two other women on the force. She was assigned to the afternoon shift for four years and during that time she graduated from El Camino College and continued at Long Beach State College, majoring in police science. She now holds an advance certificate with Police Officers Standards and Training with the State of California.

Mrs. Hahn has been active in many local and state organizations. She wears the pin of past president of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club; past president of Harbor Section, Sierra Mar district B&PW; past president of the Los Angeles County Women's Peace Officers Assn.; and has resigned as second vice president of the Women's Peace Officers Assn., State of California. The local women is a charter member of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary and has served on the Board of Directors of the Torrance Police Officers Assn.

She plans to continue work in the Philippines on her credentials for teaching police science.

Members of the Torrance B&PW club honored her at a surprise farewell party on June 6 and members of the police department will say farewell at an informal party on Sunday June 26.

MRS. MAXINE HAHN
... Resigns after 13 years
(Press-Herald Photo)

ASSUME DIANA LEADERSHIP

"Promise of Spring" was the theme of the impressive installation ceremony conducted by Mrs. Eldon Pratt when she installed new officers of the Redondo Beach Dianas at a luncheon at the Cockatoo Inn recently. Given their official duties were from left, seated, Mmes. William Tolliffee, first vice president; Paul Mitchell, president; Phil MacBride, second vice president; and Peter Kiefer, third vice president. Standing, Mmes. Lee Hausman, recording secretary; John Richards, corresponding secretary; Stanley Puffill, treasurer; Sam Costanza, press; and Christ Saunders, parliamentarian. Co-ordinators are Mrs. W. P. Iverson and Miss Genevieve Franks.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JUNE 22, 1966

B-1

Auxiliary Greet New Members

Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary honored its new members at a punch bowl and luncheon on Tuesday.

Auxiliary members and the honor guests were invited to the home of Mrs. John Barrington on Post Avenue at 11 a.m. to enjoy a get-acquainted hour around the punch bowl. Colorful paper flowers decorated the serving table.

New members honored were Mmes. Charles E. Limbird, Vincent Punaro, Wallace McLaughlin, Donald Minor, Mildred Wilson, Robert Lucas, Clyde Anderson and Elaine Endres. They were introduced by Mrs. James E. Kimble, auxiliary president.

The group then went to the staff room at the hospital for a luncheon. The luncheon was prepared and served by Mrs. John Popovich and her committee, Mmes. James McClaren, George Junkind, Don Hyde and R. A. Bingham.

During a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Kimble an orientation program for the new members was given. Each in-service chairman explained the duties of her chairmanship.

TO LEAD TORRANCE Y-WIVES

Torrance Y-Wives closed their year with an installation luncheon at the Indian Village. Installed were, from left, Mmes. David Sowins, president; Homer E. Allen, first vice-president; Roscoe Davis, second vice-president; Jerry Casler, secretary; and James Gualtieri, treasurer. Mrs. Allan Billings introduced Mrs. Carol Wood, YWCA director, who installed the new officers. Next meeting will be held Sept. 21.

(Press-Herald Photo)

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

As a special tribute to new members, Torrance Hospital Auxiliary entertained at a punch bowl at the John Barrington home prior to a luncheon and orientation program held in the staff room at the hospital. Mrs. John Barrington, hostess, is shown serving Mrs. Wallace McLaughlin, a new member, while Mrs. James Kimble, president, chats with two new members, Mmes. Charles Limbird and Clyde Anderson.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Cocktail, Buffet Honors

Claytons on 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears entertained at a cocktail buffet at their home, 3210 Merrill Drive, on Thursday evening, June 9, honoring their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clayton of Torrance, who were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary.

June 9th was also the 49th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Sears and the 26th wedding date of another daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trezise, of Mesa, Ariz., who were here for the anniversary celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton were married June 9, 1941, at the St. Andrews Episcopal Church with the Rev. Thomas Marshall officiating. The couple has one son, Rick, a Torrance High School student. Mr. Clayton is employed by Columbia Steel and Mrs. Clayton is a secretary at the Flavian school.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears were assisted by another daughter, Mrs. Henry Backlund and her sons, Bob and Marty Klink and Dean Backlund. Refreshments were served from a table centered by a silver, white and green floral arrangement. The silver punch bowl also graced the table.

A highlight of the evening came when Mrs. Clayton donned her formal wedding gown of 25 years ago, complete with veil, and greeted the guests, many of whom were present at her wedding.

The Claytons were presented with a silver coffee service by the guests attending the celebration.

Here for the party were Mrs. R. W. Hightower and Barry Trezise of Mesa, Ariz.; and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Richardson of Orem, Utah, former residents.

Others attending were Messrs. and Mmes. R. L. Sabus, James Cale, W. C. Boswell, M. L. Caldwell, J. B. Brooks, W. O. Clausing, R. R. Dexter, R. C. Morton, R. M. Morris, A. M. Posner, Frank Vogt, James Good, Regis Jones, R. Roberts.

Also, Messrs. and Mmes. Charles Clayton, Tony Figuero, R. S. Anderson; Mmes. Paul Loraager, R. D. Bolen and Bonnie McCoy.

LAUNCH NEW YEAR

Arriving at the Plush Horse restaurant for the installation luncheon of the South Bay Chapter of Woman's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training) are these new officers, from left, Mmes. Robert Plost, financial secretary; Leonard Marks, first vice-president; Jordan Rhodes, president; Raymond Lavi, second vice-president; and Allen Gralnik, recording secretary. Others installed at the Saturday luncheon were Mmes. Harold Solomon, corresponding secretary; Betty Kraus, treasurer. An original skit, "This Is the Year That Was," was presented by Mrs. Richard Mayer.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Cunninghams to Attend Jori's Vow Profession

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham and daughter, Eymard, 1923 Reynosa Dr., will leave by plane June 30 for Chicago, Ill., where they will attend a Religious Reception and Profession in the Maternal Heart of Mary Chapel in Evergreen Park on July 1 at 10 a.m.

Their daughter, Miss Jorie Cunningham, has completed her postulant year at the Convent of the Maternal Heart of Mary and will be received into the Little Company of Mary Order. As she enters her novice year, Miss Cunningham will assume the name of Sister Mary Renee.

Jorie, a native of Torrance, was graduated from Marymount High School in Palms Verdes. During her high school years, she was active in and served as president of the Junior Auxiliary to the Little Company of Mary Hospital.

Mr. Cunningham will return to Torrance on July 4. Mrs. Cunningham and Eymard will go to Camas, Wash., to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell.