Dianas Busy on Summer Projects for Teenagers

Dianas continue to remain busy with their many projects although summer vacation is here. Entertained at an "old fashioned" ice cream party were the girls from Garnet Cottage of Las Palmas School for emotionally disturbed girls. Mrs. Christ Saunders, Las Palmas chairman, reported that the Dianas and girls joined together in making ice cream and then feasted on ice cream sundaes.

Members attending were Mmes: John Richards, Christ Saunders, Howard Towle, Lee Hausman, and Sam Costanza.

Local Girls Home From Europe Trip

Returning Wednesday from a three weeks European tour were Miss Sharonne Mascola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mascola, 1633 Flower St. and Miss Diana Kasper, daughter of Mrs. Jean Kasper of Inglewood.

The girls went by plane to London, England and from there to Zurich, Lucerne and Geneva Switzerland, Rome, Italy, and Madrid, Spain.

The travelers, both Continental Airline hostesses, made the trip by TWA.

Mrs. John Richards, youth chairman, has launched a drive to hire-a-student-worker. 10,000 postcards are being addressed for their "Jobs for Youth" campaign. The cards from the South Bay Employment Service are being sent to Redondo Beach residents explaining the need for finding summer jobs for South Bay teenagers.

Dianas continue to staff the North Redondo Weil Baby Clinic every Friday morning through the summer.

The Redondo Beach Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.
