TORRANCE COUNCIL
As a public service to the community and its citizens, the Torrance Council of PTA, and all PTA units will be supporting the Voter Registration Drive from July 1 to Sept. 15.

Mrs. Perry Baker, president of Torrance Council, informed all the units the goal will be to register people who have children in our schools before the Sept. 15 deadline.

Citizenship has always been a continuing program in our Parent Teacher organization. Contacting people who are eligible to register is one of the many ways the PTA units have encouraged people to register and vote for the Primary and General Election.

There are three and one-half million eligible voters not registered in California. Deadline for registration for the General Election is Sept. 15. For information regarding eligibility to register, contact the PTA in your area.

ANZA
"Success is Constancy of Purpose," was the motto for the Anza school graduating class. Dr. Rollin Smith, past president of the Torrance Board of Education, presented diplomas at the eighth graduation on June 16 at 7 p.m. The class gave a choral reading "Nobility" which was very impressive to those present at the festivities. Music was furnished by the Anza School Band. Following the ceremony the students enjoyed a buffet and dance.

The Anza PTA will present a movie, "The Courage of Lassie," on July 12 at 1:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Adult supervision will be provided.

Board members of Anza PTA are accumulating plastic containers, paper cartons, and mementos as requested by Mrs. Gene Voorhees, pre-school chairman of Torrance Council, for the Head Start program beginning in Torrance.
