

Laker Schedule Set for '66-67

The home basketball schedule for the Los Angeles Lakers' 1966-67 NBA season has been announced by General Manager Lou Mohs. The Laker's home base will be the Sports Arena.

There will be 40 games on the Laker home schedule and 41 on the road, whereas next year there will be 41 home game and 40 on the road.

Pennant Cinched By Blues

Two Bishop Montgomery High pitching prospects for next year — Dan Graham and Chuck Desiderio — combined for a 20-1 victory Thursday as the Torrance Blues blasted the El Segundo No. 2 team in a District 19 game.

The win cinched a tie for the title for the Torrance squad. It was the 11th win of the season for the Blues.

Bart Johnson, big man from Torrance High, slammed a home run among his four hits. Graham had three hits and three RBIs.

Catcher Nelson Straley prolonged his hitting streak by collecting three bingles. He has a .465 average.

Mark Intermitt also homered for the winners.

Torrance had two 6-run innings in the third and eighth frames. The game was played at El Segundo Recreation Park.

Hungry for Some Fried Grunion?

Those elusive little grunion are expected to stage their last four-night spawning run of the year on the sandy ocean beaches of southern California starting Tuesday night, says the Department of Fish and Game.

Runs lasting one to two hours each are expected to begin about 11:20 p.m. Tuesday, 12 midnight Wednesday, 1 a.m. Thursday night and 2 a.m. Friday night.

Grunion may be taken on the beach or in the surf by hand only. It is unlawful to trap the fish by digging holes in the sand. A sportfishing license is required for persons 16-years-old or over.

Other than the license, a grunion seeker needs nothing but patience, fortitude, sharp eyes, good luck, old clothes, a willingness to get wet, and a burlap sack or other container to hold the fish.

TEACHING BASKETBALL . . . As part of a one-day clinic at South High School Wednesday will be Los Angeles coach Fred Schaus, LeRoy Ellis, John Fairchild and John Block. The clinic is for 12-year-old boys and older and will be from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Basketball Clinic Set For South

An opportunity to learn basketball from the professional level will be offered to youngsters Wednesday when coach Fred Schaus and members of the Los Angeles Lakers stage a free basketball school at South High School.

Veteran LeRoy Ellis and rookie John Fairfield will head the teaching staff. Boys 12 years of age and older will be instructed in the fundamentals of the game and taught drills to improve their basic skills.

Laker T-shirts and a basketball will be given away. In addition every boy who participates will receive two free tickets to a 1966-67 Laker home game.

The basketball clinic at South High School, one of 28 coach Fred Schaus and the Lakers will put on throughout Southern California this summer, will run from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Basketball coach Dave Cornman is in charge of the event.

Yankees Win Third Riviera Title

Sprint Car Racing Led By Thomas

Don Thomas of El Cajon and Frank Secrist of Bakersfield will resume their duel for the 1966 California Racing Assn. sprint car driving championship in Wednesday night's eight-event racing program at Ascot Park in Gardena.

Thomas holds a 29½-point lead over Secrist going into Wednesday's 30-lap main event.

Both Thomas and Secrist will drive Chevrolet V8-powered cars. Thomas wheels his own machine in which he captured four CRA mains this season. Secrist will drive a new car for the Boghosian Bros. of Tulare. He seeks his second main event triumph of the year.

While Thomas has 488½ points to Secrist's 459, Paul Jones of Torrance has 405 and Bruce Walkup of Downey has 393 points.

Jones drives a Offenhauser powered car and has two 100-lap wins at Ascot.

Little League Tournament Set to Begin

By HENRY BURKE
Press-Herald Sports Editor

Nine Little Leagues in Torrance will begin tournament competition this week. Among them Southwood is a threat to repeat as champion in District 26 playoffs and Torrance National Little League could make a strong bid in the District 27 series.

McKay Banquet Speaker

USC football coach John McKay will be speaker at the second annual banquet for the Lions Allstar Prep Football game. The luncheon will precede the game on Friday, July 29, as part of a South Bay Athletic Club meeting at the Plush Horse.

The game which features outstanding graduating high school players from 24 local schools will be Thursday, Aug. 4, at El Camino College Stadium.

The 60 players from both teams will report to Narbonne High Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. for physical exams. Dr. Rod Stetson and Dr. Wyndham Mooring will give the physicals.

Game director Jim Mechura has announced the game officials. They are John Joseph, UCLA (referee); Kip Armstrong, Occidental (umpire); Henci Ancich, Harbor (head linesman); Bob Tabing, USC (field judge); and Rosey Gilhouse, Compton (back judge).

The game announcer is Bill Reese and the photographer is Frank Kristofek.
