

At Harbor Evening Classes Planned

Deadline for enrollment in fall classes of the evening division at Los Angeles Harbor College is Sept. 8. F. James Clines, coordinator of vocational education, has announced.

The vocational educational division of the college will offer a full range of evening classes in accounting, business administration, office machines, real estate, secretarial work, and supervision.

Complete schedules, applications, and appointments for registration may be obtained at the college Admissions Office, 1111 Figueroa Place, 835-0161.

Classes begin Sept. 19 and end Feb. 3 1967. A $2.50 registration fee must be paid and students will be required to purchase their own books and supplies.

Historic Mission Dolores in San Francisco was the site of the first California State Fair held in 1854. Some $5,000 in premiums were offered. This year's State Fair in Sacramento, Aug. 31-Sept. 11, will offer nearly $300,000 in premiums.

Heart Workers Get 'Heartfelt' Thanks

June was a month of "heartfelt" gratitude for Torrance area heart workers when the Los Angeles County Heart Association's Southwestern Branch presented awards to its heart volunteers.

A Torrance heart volunteer who received the Southwestern Branch's highest award was Miss Eileen O'Brien, community service director at Harbor General Hospital. Miss O'Brien, presently non-medical vice-chairman of the local heart branch, was honored "for her leadership in bringing the heart cause to the area."

Local heart leader, Dr. Ronald T. Piccirillo, 1965-66 Southwestern Branch chairman, received a medallion for his dedication to heart.

Other recipients included Floella Whitacre, 911 Sartori Ave., a five-year pin; Mrs. William Downey, 4108 173rd Place, one-year pin; Mrs. L. H. Harmon, 2313 W. 180th St., two-year pin; Rosy Shepherd, 807 Beech Ave., four-year pin; and Mrs. Evalin Weinstein, 21234 Ladeen Ave., a three-year pin.

Also honored were Mrs. John C. Watson and her three triplets, Danny, DeWayne and David, 3126 W. 187th St., for the time they have spent in helping the heart cause.

Kaplan (4305 Torrance Blvd.); Bill King, Security First National Bank; Robert C. Lebow, 1104 Sartori Ave.; Dr. Richard J. Lescoe, 21320 Hawthorne Blvd.; Dr. Chi Kong Lui, heart physician on cardiology at Harbor General Hospital, and James Wilkins, New York Life Insurance Co.

A local group which received heart honors was the Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347, who gave "their hearts to heart" during the Heart Fund Campaign last February.

SPECIAL certificates of appreciation were presented to the following heart workers: Herbert Gulick, who was the Southwestern Branch Heart fund raising chairman last February; Gilbert Pando, Security First National Bank, who was Southwestern 1965-66 non-medical vice chairman; Louis Scibona, Metropolitan Life Insurance, who
