

Area Leaders to Plan Dedication Ceremonies

Appointment of an executive committee to assist in planning ceremonies for the formal dedication of the new Torrance County Courts Building was announced this week by Supervisor Burton W. Chace, chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

The dedication will be held late next spring, Chace said. Arrangement of the dedication ceremonies have been volunteered by the presidents of four bar associations in the area served by the new multi-story county courts building. The associations include the South Bay Bar Association, the Inglewood Bar Association, the Southwest Bar Association, and the Los Angeles County Bar Association.

THE NEW Torrance County Courts Building will be five stories in height and will provide seven superior and four municipal court rooms. Cost of the long-needed facility is set at $4,400,444, Chace disclosed.

Members of the presidents' committee recently named to assist the four presidents in arranging the upcoming public dedication include the following:

Paul M. Moore, deputy to Supervisor Chace; Arlyn V. Weber, deputy to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn; Thomas P. Faye, attorney representing the South Bay Bar Association; Richard Helm, attorney representing the Inglewood Bar Association; Vince Pettit, attorney representing the Southwest Bar Association, and Timothy O'Connor

White Sale Under Way At Thrifty

Thrifty Drug Stores has initiated a sales event anxiously awaited by vast throngs of quality conscious bargain hunters — the semi-annual White Sale. For a limited 12-day sales period every store in the Thrifty chain will feature hundreds of White Sale "specials" that make ideal additions to anyone's home.

White Sale price tags can be found on such items as bath towels in a variety of designs and colors, polyfoam mattress pads in both twin and full sizes, hemmed cotton flour sack dish cloths, and attractive printed cotton dish cloths in packs of four.

Blankets at special prices, you'll find a vast selection from which to choose at your neighborhood Thrifty Drug Store during the White Sale. Exceptional values are featured on sheet blankets, blankets in a rayon-nylon mixture, plaid blankets, and full-size electric blankets.
