

Report on Un-American Activities Now Ready

The 13th annual report of James D. Driscoll, Chief Clerk of the Assembly, Suite 3165, Assembly Chambers, State Capitol, Sacramento 14. Activities has been published. Assemblyman Charles E. Chapel (R-46th District) said today.

Chapel said free copies of the report, officially titled "Thirteenth Report Supplement on Un-American Activities in California, 1966," may be obtained by writing to Sen. Hugh M. Burns, President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Senate Chambers, State Capitol, Sacramento 14.

Supplies of the report are limited, Chapel said.

THE ASSEMBLYMAN also listed several other free publications which may be obtained.

"Basic Facts of Firearms Control," a publication of the National Rifle Association, may be obtained by writing to the Legislative Service, National Rifle Association of America, 1600 Rhode Island, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20036.

The pamphlet, according to Chapel, includes a summary of federal and state laws regulating the possession and use of firearms. "I highly recommend this publication to anyone who has an interest in firearms legislation," Chapel said.

COPIES OF THE book, "Constitution of the United States and of the State of California and Related Documents" once again are available, he said. The related documents include the Declaration of Independence, the Magna Carta, the Mayflower Compact, and other historical writings.

A copy may be obtained without charge by writing to

Lawn Mower Taken

A power lawn mower valued at $130 was reported stolen Friday by James E. Callender of 4026 W. 182nd St. Callender told police the mower was in the garage, which was unlocked.

FAIR MEDALS

Twenty enologists (that's a wine expert, not a palm reader) will have the say in the awarding of California State Fair medals to top wineries entered in the exposition's annual wines competition. Wines winning gold and silver honors will be featured during the Fair's Aug. 31-Sept. 11 run in a "wine cellar" in the Woman's Exposition Hall.

GOVERNMENT THANKS CLERGY . . . Supervisor Kenneth Hahn extends his appreciation to the Rev. Michael Buckley of St. Philomena rectory, 21900 S. Main St., Torrance, for delivering the opening invocation for a recent meeting of the Board of Supervisors. Supervisor Hahn initiated the practice of having a leading clergyman open each meeting with a word of prayer.

Daily Business Bulletin Now Available at Chamber

Torrance business firms may now consult the "Commerce Business Daily" at the offices of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, 1510 Cravens Ave.

As part of the service rendered by the chamber as a cooperative office of the U.S. Department of Commerce, the local office maintains a file of the bulletin, which is published five days each week.

The "Daily," an information bulletin for businessmen, provides a daily list of U.S. Government procurement invitations, subcontracting leads, contract awards, sales of surplus property, and foreign business opportunities.

PROCUREMENT invitations cover many areas, including experimental, development, test and research work; maintenance and repair of equipment; architect, engineer, expert and consultant services; housekeeping services; photographic, mapping, printing and publication services; transportation services; construction and other improvements, such as roads, bridges, tunnels, sewers, power lines, docks, railways, and canals.

Invitations to bid on supplies, equipment, and materiel cover such items as weapons, fire control equipment, ammunitions and explosives, guided missiles, aircraft and airframe components, ship and marine equipment, vehicular components, tires and tubes, engines and turbines, engine accessories, metal working machinery, construction equipment, materials handling equipment, refrigeration and air conditioning equipment, pumps and compressors, communications equipment, and many others.

The Foreign Business Opportunities section lists bids from the procurement agencies of foreign governments throughout the world.

Chamber offices are open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.
