

Delegates At Emblem Club Meet

The second quarterly meeting of the California Association of Emblem Clubs was held recently at the Senator Hotel in Sacramento. Sixty-two clubs were represented. Guest speaker at the business meeting was Superior Judge Robin Roberts. Mr. Roberts is the Elks state indoctrination chairman.

Seventeen clubs entered the Hard of Hearing slogan contest. Tulare Emblem club won with the slogan, "We Participate, They Communicate." A scholarship for $2,000 was awarded to Helen Titus of Pasadena to help train her to teach the hard of hearing. The third quarterly meeting will be held on Feb. 3 and 4 at the Edgewater Beach Motel in Long Beach. The State Convention will be held at the Hacienda Hotel in Fresno, Calif., on April 27, 28 and 29. Gardena Emblem Club was represented by Mmes. Frank Duncan, president, and William Wilhelm, first vice president. A tour of the State Capit-

Yule Music Enjoyed by Auxiliary

Spruce and pyracantha decorated the tables at the buffet luncheon meeting of the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary held Tuesday at the Plush Horse restaurant. The 11:30 a.m. luncheon was enjoyed followed by a business meeting conducted by Mrs. James Kimble, president. After the meeting, the auxiliary was entertained with Christmas music from many lands. Performers included a trio consisting of Lois Cummins of the Bel Air Hotel, Bee Boggess and Georgia Anderson of the Northrup Symphonaires. Barbara Esensten was the piano accompanist.

Cheese Spread

Combine one cup grated cheddar cheese with three-quarters cup American blue cheese (about 4 ounces, crumbled), one clove mashed garlic, one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, a dash hot pepper sauce, and one-quarter cup beer. Blend all ingredients well and serve as dip or cracker spread.

MRS. LEONARD GRICE

POWELL-GRICE
First Methodist Church in Gardena was the scene of an afternoon wedding ceremony when Miss Janice Arlene Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Powell, 2035 W. 166th St., became the bride of Leonard E. Grice, of Los Angeler. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ewalt Carlson of Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of French lace fashioned with a train. Her illusion veil fell from a cluster of net petals sprinkled with pearls. White baby roses formed her cascade bouquet.

In red velvet, Miss Judie Ann Stuver was maid of honor. Candles were lighted by Robert Pettit and Steven Turner, nephews of the bride.

Walter Weiss stood as best man and ushers were Richard Pettit and Ronald Turner.

Rev. Sidney Lawson officiated at the candlelight ceremony as Richard Dollarhide sang.

A reception was held at the church, followed by a buffet dinner at the home of the bride's parents.

The honeymoon was spent in Iowa and the new address is 223 Museum Dr., Los Angeles.

The bride is a graduate of North High School and El Camino. Her husband, educated in Iowa, is a television engineer with KCOP.

Xi Lambdas To Deliver Yule Gifts

Toys and paper products, donated by members of Xi Zeta Lambda at the Dec. 6 meeting at the Hawthorne home of Mrs. William Guthomsen, chapter president, will be taken to the Garden Valley Association for Mentally Retarded by Mrs. Clyde Turville, service chairman.

The annual Christmas dinner party for Xi Zeta Lambda was held on Dec. 20 at the home of Mrs. Bert Whited in Gardena at 7:30 p.m. Secret Sisters exchanged gifts. Mrs. Charles Mel-Lodge, South Bay Area Council sponsor, and Mrs. Raymond Millhouse, advisor to Xi Zeta Lambda, were honored guests.

Cultural programs for December on "Nature" was presented by Mrs. August Mitchell and Mrs. Charles Blackburn.

Mrs. Charles Marsh has been appointed as corresponding secretary and Sunshine chairman and Mrs. Helen O'Neil will serve as historian for Xi Zeta Lambda. Mrs. Troy Conn has been accepted for membership as a pledge in Xi Zeta Lambda.
