

Madrecitas Yearbook Ready for Compiling

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

August 2, 1967

B-1

Jaycette Annual Party

For New Members

Torrance Jaycettes will welcome new members at a Swim Party and Luncheon tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Harold Lindborg, immediate past president.

Mrs. Ralph Grippo, first vice president, is chairman of the event which begins at 11:30 a.m. Assisting her will be Mrs. Douglas Hedde, who will give the orientation at the luncheon. Board members and past president will provide food for the buffet.

New members invited are Mmes. Neil Conway, Gerald Hepfinger, Jim Strumpher, Les Prentice, Dick Smart, John Burkett, Jim Altman, Dave Schwartz, Mike Riley, Randy Mills, Graeme MacDonald, Art Malkin, Jim Scribener, Dale Choate, and Jon Brubaker.

A handsome yeabook, filled with $1500 in advertising, is now in the making by Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital. The yearbook will be distributed as programs at Las Madrecitas events during the coming year.

First event on the social and philanthropic calendar for Las Madrecitas will be a gala showing of fall's newest fashions scheduled for Sept. 26 at the Edgewater Inn in Long Beach.

According to Mrs. George Savage, club president, and Mrs. Edward Sokolski, year book chairman, the book contains informative pages on the South Bay as well as information regarding the founding of Las Madrecitas by Mrs. Hal J. Leslie, Jr. in 1956. It also records the progress of the South Bay Auxiliary and its success in raising approximately $18,000 for Orthopaedic Hospital.

Members responsible for the 1967-68 year book are Mmes. David B. Congelton, Robert Zicaro, Malcolm Richland, Angus Scott, Ralph Garland, Phillip Horwith, Clarence Burke, Harry Sharpe, Louis F. Lanzer, Hans Hansen, Howard S. Anderson, Samuel Caramelli, John Dougherty, Walter Hetz and John Kenny.

YEARBOOK IN THE MAKING

Pleased with their response from South Bay businessmen, Las Madrecitas yearbook committee is now exerting its artistic talents in putting the book together to be used as programs at its major fund raising event, a Fashion Luncheon Sept. 26 at the Edgewater Inn in Long Beach. Mrs. Edward Sokol-ski, standing, yearbook chairman, watches Mrs. David Congelton sketching a possible cover for the book, while on the floor, Mrs. Ralph Gardland, treasurer, and Mrs. Robert Zicaro, left, look over pictures to be used in the book.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Long Time Torrance Residents

Honored on Golden Date

Mr. and Mrs. Burney R. Morris, 1815 Reynosa Dr., Torrance, residents for 24 years, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary July 4. Open House was arranged by their daughters Mrs. James Munce of Palos Verdes and Mrs. Clem Bolles, Torrance.

The honored couple was married July 4, 1917 in Redding, Calif., three days before Mr. Morris left for World War I Navy Duty at San Pedro Harbor. Mr. Morris is now retired from Regan Forge and Engineering Co. of San Pedro. Mrs. Morris is still an active member of the First Christian Church of Torrance.

Their daughter, June, is married to James Munce, owner of Munce Shell Service, Wilmington. Mrs. Munce teaches kindergarten at Fries Ave. School, Wilmington. They have three children: Jim, recently graduated from Washington University in St. Louis as a Doctor of Dentistry and is now a Lieutenant in the U. S. Navy stationed at Camp Pendleton. Daughter June is completing her studies at Long Beach City College for a degree in physical education and Jay will enter Long Beach State College to major in music.

Their other daughter, Burna Bolles, is married to Clem Bolles of Virgel's Wheel Alignment, Torrance. They also have three children, Tom, a sophomore at North High; Maria, an 8th grader at Hamilton Elementary; and Lisa, a 2nd grade student at Hamilton. All the children were on hand to honor their grandparents.

The traditional wedding cake was cut by the happy couple to the pleasure of fifty-five relatives who gathered to add their best wishes. Entertainment was provided by their nephew, Dr. Lester Halstead, a psychologist from Las Vegas, who gave a

(Continued on B-2)

BEAT THE HEAT

A pleasant summer welcome for new members will be staged tomorrow by the Jaycettes when they enjoy a swim party and luncheon at the home of their immediate past president, Mrs. Harold Lindborg. Making final plans for the event, Mrs. Ralph Grippo; left, chairman, invites new members, from left, Mmes. Lee Prentice, Graeme MacDonald and Earl Wilson to enjoy a cup of coffee with their feet dangling in the pool.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Newlyweds To Live in Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Michael David Cangro, who were married recently, have returned from a tour of California and Nevada and Mr. Cangro left for Amberg, Germany, where he is serving with the United States Army. Mrs. Cangro plans to join him in late September.

The bride is the former Kristine Lea Nansel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wray H. Nansel of San Pedro. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Can-gro, 21438 Meyer St., Torrance. The couple was married at the South Bay Church of God by the Rev. Clifford Tierman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of white satin. Her illusion veil was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried white orchids and carnations.

Attendants were Mrs. Valerie Jones, Misses Gail Nansel, Vicki Steinbach, Lorrie

Nansel, Susie Perkins, Teri Steinbach and Sharon Bench. James North served as best man and ushers were Eugene Cangro, Jame Cangro and Daniel Beasley.

A reception was held at the church followed by another at the bride's home.

The new Mrs. Cangro was graduated in June from Narbonne High School. Her husband also attended Narbonne before entering the service.

Pre-Nuptial Parties for Bride-elect

Miss Patty Hayward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Howard and bride-elect of Albert Thompson, was honored at a miscellaneous shower last Friday evening, given by Mrs. Anthony Jessome and her daughter, Miss Kathy Jessome at their Cota Avenue home.

Pink and white were used in decorating. Games were played followed by the opening of gifts.

Attending were Mmes. Kenneth Noweles, Glynn Rendelman, John McMahon, Noel Hayward; Misses Diana Rendelman and Noeline Hayward. Mrs. George Dinvinney, unable to attend, sent a gift.

Miss Hayward will again be complimented at a pre-nuptial shower on Aug. 8 given by Miss Carol Winkelbauer. Guest list for this shower will include her Bishop Montgomery High School friends.

The marriage will take place Aug. 19 at a 10 o'clock Nuptial Mass at the Nativity Catholic Church. The future bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thompson, and his sister, Mrs. William Vizer and daughter, Denise, all of Cleveland, Ohio, will be here to attend the wedding.

MRS. ARLEN C. VASELENKO (Photography by Stanford)

At Home in El Paso

Margaret Nan Roemisch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Roemisch, 3030 Merrill Dr., walked down the aisle of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock on July 22, on the arm of her father, to exchange marriage vows with Arlen Charles Vaselenko. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Alex Vaselenko, 16702 Cranbrook Ave.

The wedding gown of ivory faced peau was fashioned on Empire A lines with Alencon lace sleeves and a border of the same lace encircling the full skirt. Another feature of the gown was a detachable chapel train. Her bouffant illusion veil was held by a small lace pillbox sprinkled with sequins. The crescent bridal bouquet was of white orchids, stephanotis and roses.

In poudre blue empire gowns attendants were Mrs. Kent Lee Little, serving as her sister's matron of honor; Misses Shirley Hasselberg, Penny Miller, Janet Kimbrell, bridesmaids. They carried blue orchids. Jeanette Marie Little, with a basket of blue daisies, was flower girl.

Henry A. Roemisch III stood as his brother's best man. The 150 guests were seated by Dennis Deizeit, Charles Heath, Rick Vaselenko and Ronald Vaselenko.

Rev. Paul Cox officiated at the marriage and nuptial music was played by Mrs. Melville Tully.

A reception was held in the Banbury Room at the Flush Horse restaurant. Miss Judy Kirschner was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left for El Paso, Texas where Mr. Vaselenko is serving with the United States Army stationed at General Beaumont Hospital. The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School, El Camino College and the Howell Dental Institute.

Her husband is a graduate of North High and El Camino College.

Wins Her Silver Wings

Miss Betty Jane Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hodges, 1745 Maple St., Torrance, has been awarded the silver wings of an American Airlines stewardess after completing training at American's Stewardess College, Fort Worth, Tex.

She has been assigned to flight duty out of New York City.

Miss Hodges, who was born in Fremont, Neb., graduated from Palo Verde High, Tucson, Ariz., in 1956. She also attended the University of Arizona, Tucson, and El Camino Junior College, Torrance, as an English major. Prior to joining American Airlines, she was employed at Magnavox Research Lab, Torrance.

She is 5'6" tall with brown hair and blue eyes.

Miss Hodges graduated with the sixteenth class of the year at American's unique Stewardess College. During her seven-week training period she studied more than 100 different courses, ranging from make-up and grooming to in-flight food service and theory of flight.

BETTY HODGES ... Airline Stewardess