

MANAGER . . . William R. Gross, of 4544 Tallman St., has been named manager of the Wilshire-Rampart branch of the Bank of America. Gross, who joined the bank in 1948, has been assigned to the Los Angeles headquarters since 1964 as assistant vice president in the equipment financing and leasing department.

Area Club Seats New Leaders

Guy M. Walker has been installed as president of the Torrance Toastmasters Club for the 1967-68 year. Walker was installed in ceremonies conducted by Michael Luyt, governor of District 5 of Toastmasters International.

Other new officers of the local club are Dennis Bean, educational vice president; Eugene M. Stinson, administrative vice president; Joe Huston, secretary; Jim Bristol, treasurer; and Bill Brix, sergeant at arms.

Keynote speakers for the installation were Don Wasserman, president of the Lynwood Chamber of Commerce and lieutenant governor of District 51 of the Toastmasters International, and Scott F. Albright, a Torrance businessman and past president of the local club.

Japanese Boy Scouts Will Visit

South Bay residents will be hosting 32 boys and eight adult leaders from the Japanese contingent from the World Boy Scouts Jamboree in Idaho Saturday through Monday.

The Japanese Scouts are on their way back to Japan but will stay with families in Palos Verdes, Torrance and Redondo Beach for the weekend.

The boys plan to take part in the Nisei week festival in Japanese Town on Sunday and a trip to Disneyland.

Torrance Mayor Albert Isen will officially greet the youngsters at Toyota Motors on 190th Street Saturday where a reception will be held for the travelers.

Work Slated On Freeway

Bids for the modification of signs along a 48-mile section of the San Diego Freeway will be opened in Los Angeles Sept. 21, the State Division of Highways said today.

A total of $105,000 is available for the project, which involves the section between Studebaker Road in Long Beach and the interchange with the Golden State Freeway.

San Bernardino Choir to Appear In Concert Here

The Del Rosa Choir of San Bernardino will present a concert of sacred music Tuesday evening at the Bethesda Assembly of God Church, 1473 W. 182nd St.

The program will begin at 7:15 p.m., Pastor Elwyn Lewis said.

A varied program of sacred music, ranging from Negro spirituals to traditional hymns, will be presented.
