

Mrs. Guyan Feted on Birthday

Mrs. Jean Guyan, who has made her home at 1807 Andree in Torrance for 56 years, was honored at a family dinner party on Sunday in celebration of her 86th birthday.

The party was given by Mrs. Guyan's granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lanny LeVier, at their home, 21322 Talsman Ave.

Among the guests were the honoree's three daughters, Mrs. Rosemary Marshall and Mrs. John Johnson of Long Beach and Mrs. Ethel Fols of Torrance, who makes her home with her mother. A son, John Guyan of Torrance was also in attendance.

Dinner was enjoyed followed by the cutting of a large decorated birthday cake. Mrs. Guyan was showered with gifts from the guests among whom were two great-grandchildren, Lance and Guyan LeVier.

Mrs. Guyan, a native of Scotland, and her husband came to Torrance 56 years ago. She has been a widow for one and a half years.

The birthday celebrant has been active in the Central Evangelical Church and in the Torrance Eastern Star.

WHAT GOES ON IN THE COURTS

Torrance Business and Professional Woman's Club will attend Night Court at the new Torrance Courthouse next Monday evening with Judge George R. Perkovich, Jr., presiding. Meeting with the Judge to discuss the attendance, a point of law comes up and Judge Perkovich interprets for, from left, Mmes. Flora Hameetman, B&PW president; Rae Reinman, court clerk; Bess Tufts and Darwin Farrish, first vice president. After adjournment, the club will go to a nearby restaurant for dinner. The club invites any business or professional woman in the area interested in joining to call Mrs. Flora Hameetman, president, or Mrs. Rae Reinman, membership chairman.

Torrance Y-Wives Will Begin Year on Sept. 27

Torrance Y-Wives will begin another year Wednesday, Sept. 27 by holding Open House for members and guests. All South Bay wives are invited to attend from 9:30 to 11:30 and learn about the club's programs and activities. The group meets at the YWCA building, 2320 W. Carson St., Torrance.

Mrs. Marsha Billings, president, will open the meeting and present her board members and committee chairmen for the coming year. Each will give a brief description of her job. Refreshments and a get-acquainted period will follow.

Child care will be available for mothers with small children. The group meets each Wednesday from 9:30-11:30 for an hour of exercise and dance, bridge, or volleyball. Programs, featuring a guest speaker or demonstrations of interest to women comprise the second hour. Refreshments are provided.

Plans are already under way for a fashion show to be presented Nov. 8. Social events for both husbands and wives will also be part of the year's activities.

Officers for the coming year are Mmes. Marshal Billings, president; Tommie Hite, first vice president; Sue Shannon, second vice president; Beverly Weideman, treasurer; and Marcia Alie, secretary.

Committee chairmen are Mmes. Lorraine Erickson, friendship; Robin Peterson, decorations; Doris Lundy, child care; Fran Schlack, refreshments; and Juanita Boldt, devotions.

Local Woman Officer of Loyola Club

Loyola University Faculty Wives' Club will host the annual faculty picnic on Saturday, Sept. 30 on Sullivan Field at the Westchester campus.

Among the newly elected officers greeting the faculty and their families will be Mrs. Frank L. Christ, 5440 Edgemore, Torrance.

Mrs. Christ, whose husband is associate professor of education and director of the Study Skills Center, is welfare chairman for the Wives' Club.

Philharmonic Committee Opens Year With Salon

Miss Rose Taylor will be a guest artist at the first salon of the season by the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Joseph A. Denni, 28967 Palos Verdes Dr. East, Miraleste.

A brief business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. James C. Foley, president of the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. She will announce forthcoming plans for a full and brilliant season of musicales, salons and concerts.

Mrs. Lawrence Willson, program chairman, will present Miss Rose Taylor, mezzo-soprano, guest artist for this salon. She is currently studying at the University of Southern California in her senior year in the School of Music, under the tutorage of William Vennard and Gwendolyn Koldofsky.

Also to her credit, Miss Taylor has been awarded six scholarships, the most recent the second place award in the Young Musicians Foundation Career and Debut Grant.

Around a beautifully decorated Autumn table, members and guests will gather for a social hour before the program begins. Mrs. Herbert J. Jones and Mrs. Joseph L. Siragusa will pour at the tea table. In charge of hosting will be Mrs. Robert C. Works and Mrs. John Grischy.
