

It's Carnival Time in Torrance

Spooks,
Witches,
Goblins

On
The Prowl

Princess Hi-Ko-Ree, Mrs. Edwin Mach, as an Indian fortune teller, calls on the "spirits" to send their happiest goblins and witches for the Hickory PTA's Halloween carnival to be held Friday evening from 6 to 10 p.m. Princess Hi-Ko-Ree is being watched by, from left, Mmes. Robert H. Richie, John Erliner, president, and Milton R. Sumner, carnival chairman. Chicken sukiyaki, hamburgers and other fare will be on sale and there will be game booths and prizes. A dance has been planned for the 7th and 8th graders. (Press-Herald Photo)

Ghost Stories

Mrs. Wade Taggart, publicity chairman of the Towers PTA, and Mrs. Howard Unrue, president, watch as Mrs. Ray Hurst, budget chairman, tells two Towers students, Julie Olson 5, and Harry Stuver 6, how the ghosts come out to play on Halloween. Towers PTA will commence its Halloween Carnival on Saturday with a costume parade at 10:30 a.m. followed by a carnival from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. There will be costume prizes, all kinds of game booths and refreshments. Mrs. Melvin Halvorson, carnival chairman, invites the public. (Press-Herald Photo)

Calling All Spirits

Goblins A Go-Go

Choosing a feast that the goblins will like when the Crenshaw PTA presents its "Goblins A Go-Go" Friday evening from 5 to 9 p.m. on the school grounds are these PTA members and the school principal. Mrs. Fred Wyatt, coways and means chairman, steps off the watusi with Hugh Dooley, principal, while, center back, Mrs. Carl Nord, ways and means chairman, and Mrs. Richard Gillham, president, tap out the beat. A spaghetti dinner will be served and carnival games will be available. (Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

OCTOBER 22, 1967

B-1

Gypsies and Witches

Anything can happen and there's lots of mystery in the offing when the Howard Wood PTA stages its Halloween carnival next Saturday from 11 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. on the school grounds. Weid-o-Witch, Mrs. William L. Myers, co-chairman of hospitality, is told some of the mysterious things that are to happen by Mrs. Wesley Coleman, gypsy, as she reads her crystal ball. The fun-filled carnival will have games for all, food, prizes and special features Madama Swami and a clown. (Press-Herald Photo)

Present Marion Jones Elk Ladies Sponsor Art Exhibit Nov. 5

Torrance Ladies of the Elks will present a premiere art exhibit "Portraits in Oil" by Marion Jones on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 5, from 2 until 6 p.m.

The exhibit will be held at the Torrance Elks Lodge, 1820 Abalone Ave.

Refreshments will be served throughout the exhibit hours. The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Jones is the wife of Marvin C. Jones, a member of the Elks Lodge. She has been a member of the Ladies of the Elks for the past eight years.

Born in Greeley, Colo., the local artist was graduated from Altus, Okla., high school and junior college. She then enrolled at Oklahoma University where she majored in art.

Besides painting portraits, landscapes, seascapes and animals, Mrs. Jones was employed for two years by Douglas Aircraft as a technical illustrator. She was also a designer of children's cards for the American Greeting Card Co. of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones have three daughters, Mrs. Eugene Malle of Torrance, Janis, 18, and Kristen, 14, both at home. Torrance has been the Jones family home for the past 15 years.

For the Sunday afternoon exhibit, Mrs. Jones will have on display more than fifty canvases.

MRS. MARION JONES

... In One Man Show

(Seeman Portrait)

Sam Thomsens Assigned To Laos Capital

Mrs. Sam Thomsen and children, Sammie, Katie and Robert, arrived last Saturday from Washington, D. C. for a few weeks visit with Mrs. Thomsen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf on Halldale Ave.

Mr. Thomsen is with the State Department and remained in Washington until the first week in November when he will come to Torrance to join his family for their trip to Vientiane, the capital of Laos, where Mr. Thomsen will be sent on a two-year assignment.

Mission Bazaar

Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters, will stage their annual Mission Bazaar Wednesday from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the home of Misses Kathryn and Felice Shaughnessy, 1404 Cota Ave. Coffee and doughnuts will be served during the morning and a salad luncheon at noon. Displaying some of the gift items which will be offered for sale are, from left, Mmes. Regina Cunningham, Anna Bagosi, Blanche Heatherman and Helen Pettinato. Proceeds from the bazaar will go to the many charities which the Mission Circle sponsors. (Press-Herald Photo)