

WARRIOR TRAILS

By Robin Newcomer

The 1967 football season at tournament last Friday afternoon at North High. Six Warriors represented West and every entry won its debate with no rounds lost. The winning debate teams were Chris Lynch and Becky Drury, Cathy O'Shea and Brad Coombs; and Mae Nonoshita and Ernie Park.

A very worthy cause, the United Crusade Campaign, is being sponsored by the Medicine Club this week. The crusade is a joint effort of the American Red Cross and United Way to receive contributions.

NOV. 19, 1967, marks the last home football game and the long awaited Grid Night Dance. The Grid Court will be announced at the game during halftime and will reign over the dance. All classes are invited to the semi-formal. Tickets are only $5 a couple.

International is the word at the annual AFS buffet. Nov. 19 is the date at the Torrance YMCA where dinner will be served continuously from 2 p.m. Dishes will be representing many countries including Turkey, Greece, Italy, Denmark, England, and Spain. Tickets are only $2 for adults, $1.50 for students and $1 for children 12 and under. The tickets can be purchased by calling the vice president for AFS West West, Mrs. Jack Erving, at 374-8786.

Homecoming Dance Set After Game

Alumni at South High will be guests of honor at a homecoming dance following the South High-Ingleswood football game Friday, Nov. 17.

Highlight of the homecoming festivities will be the selection and crowning of a homecoming queen and her court. The football game is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and the dance will begin immediately following the game.

Former students desiring to attend the dance should contact South High for tickets prior to the dance. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

Seeks Title

Sharon Terrill, of 5609 Vial Callado, is one of four girls competing for the title of junior princess in the Homecoming Court at California State Long Beach. The court will be named Friday.

REALTORS ON CARAVAN . . . Realtors and salesmen board a city bus as members of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors prepare to travel through area to check property being offered and to check on matters relating to real estate development and values. The caravan is a regular feature of the Realtors' organization.

Harbor Hospital Names New Medical Director

Appointment of William H. Swanson, M.D., as medical director at Harbor General Hospital, effective Friday, has been announced by Leslie R. Smith, hospital administrator.

Dr. Swanson, who joined the Harbor General staff as assistant medical director in July, 1966, has been serving in recent months as associate medical director. He succeeds Dr. Harold Muzur, who has been appointed associate dean of the University of Southern California School of Medicine.

The new medical director serves as assistant dean and as an assistant professor of medicine at the UCLA School of Medicine.

Dr. Swanson, who is 33, lives with his wife, Jan, and two children in West Los Angeles.

Born in Seattle, Wash., Dr. Swanson was educated in
