Lewellens Say Adieu

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Lewellen Sr., active Torrance professional and civic leaders since 1924, will move this weekend to a new home in Yucaipa.

Mr. Lewellen, who came to Torrance as a printer for the Torrance Herald, retired after operating Lewellen Press here for more than 15 years. He had served as print shop foreman for the Herald for 25 years before opening his own firm.

Mrs. Lewellen was recently feted on her retirement after nearly 25 years as a court clerk. She was clerk in the court of the late Judge Otto B. Willett for most of those years, joining him when he was city judge for Torrance.

The couple's son, Robert Lewellen Jr., resides in Torrance and has succeeded his father in the operation of Lewellen Press.

Always active in community affairs here, the Lewellens were members of the American Legion and its Auxiliary, the Triple-T dance club, and a number of social groups. He was a member of the Torrance Rotary Club for many years, an active Boy Scout leader, a colonel in the California National Guard, and an active organizer and leader of the city's annual Armed Forces Day celebration.

Mrs. Lewellen is a member of the Business and Professional Women here and has been a member of a Torrance bridge club whose members have been meeting for nearly 30 years.

Their new home will be at 12399 Fourth St., in Yucaipa, in the foothills of the San Bernardino Mountains east of Redland.

They are joining a colony of former Torrance residents, Mr. Lewellen said this week. He said a number of Torrance families have moved to Yucaipa in recent years, including several former city employees.

"We shouldn't be complete strangers in our new home," he said.

Cocktail Fur Showing

Luxurious fur pieces will be among the fashions shown at Las Colinas Garden Club dinner-dance to be held Saturday. Here, Mrs. Thomas Conaty, fashion coordinator for the show, displays one of the items to Mrs. Davis Cochran, general chairman of the dance. Standing at left, Mrs. Jerry Toombs, club president, views a dance poster created by Mrs. William Belford, art chairman. A military theme will set the tone of the evening, with many prizes being awarded to lucky merrymakers. Members and guests will have their choice of filet mignon or lobster following the informal cocktail fashion show. (Press-Herald Photo)

Ball to Feature Military Theme

Toy soldiers and candle-holder drums will help set the military theme for the semi-formal dinner-dance planned Saturday by Las Colinas Garden Club.

The Veteran's Day event will begin with cocktails and an informal fashion show of furs presented by M. Jacques.

Prizes offered to lucky guests will include a mink hat, free dinners and lunches at fashionable Torrance restaurants, and a trip for two to Las Vegas.

Choosing either filet mignon or lobster, diners will be entertained by orchestra music. After-dinner dancing has been scheduled.

Mrs. Jerry Toombs, president of Las Colinas, has appointed Mrs. Davis Cochran as chairman of the event. Other assistants are Mrs. William Belford, decorations; Mrs. Tom Conaty, door prizes; and Mrs. Irving Lessin, Doug Adams, Max Melwing, Marion Hamer, and Ray Pittin.

Those wishing further information may contact Mrs. Cochran.

Mink and Rummage

A mink trimmed ladies' sale chairman, has announced that clothing for the whole family will be featured at the sale.

Mrs. Miles will be assisted by Mmes. Albert Isen, H. R. Richards, C. M. Crook, J. P. Bay, C. L. Porter, F. C. Owens, Ervin Mowdy, and R. E. Moffitt.

Bazaar Features Goodies, Gadgets

Torrance Junior Woman's Club is busy making preparations for its "Goodies and Gadgets" sale on Friday, Nov. 17, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3331 Torrance Blvd.

Unique to this sale is the fact that each of the nine federated chairmen, under the direction of Mrs. Douglas Hedde, dean of chairmen, will be in charge of her own booth. The proceeds from each of these federation booths will be used for a philanthropic project selected by the hostess chairman.

Mrs. John Thayer, third vice president, has announced that Villa Contenta Convalescent Home, Harbor Hospital, Project Headstart, Retarded Children's Foundation, and Pennies for Pines are a few of the projects that will benefit from the proceeds.

Months of work have been spent on making hand-crafted items. Taking charge of the nine federation booths are Mrs. Ronald Large, Americanism; Mrs. Larry Smith, health; Mrs. Bruce Wilkinson, mental health; Mrs. Peter Tillson, youth; Mrs. Wayne Lynch, safety; Mrs. LeRoy Lindsey, international affairs; Mrs. Jerry Kreutz, fine arts; Mrs. Lowell Costello, conservation; and Mrs. Alex Bishop, education. Mrs. John Thayer, chairman of the Goodies and Gadgets sale, and Torrance Junior Woman's Club board members will staff the baked goods, country store, white elephant, note cards, and children's booths. Mmes. Léan L. Sears and Leslie Steigh, co-ordinators from the Torrance Woman's Club, will also be booth hostesses.

Mrs. Thayer and her committee have issued invitations to businessmen in the Torrance area to attend the luncheon which will highlight the day-long event. The luncheon will feature casserole, salad, roll, coffee, and homemade pumpkin pie.

Mrs. Thayer announced that "home-made" keynotes the entire sale. All of the baked goods are being prepared from scratch. Recipes for jams, jellies, dressings, and sauces will provide customers with a variety of choices.

Christmas package wraps, hostess sets, flowers, placemats, crayon-keepers, pencil holders, candles, mirror plaques, bean bags, note holders, tree ornaments, pillows, and taffy apples are among the items suggested for Christmas shoppers.

Pre-sale luncheon tickets may be obtained from any club member or by calling Mrs. Thayer. Entrance to the sale is free-of-charge.

Eight Hands, One Piano

Piano tunes from Polonaise to Persian Market were played by four youthful students of Claire Waterman recently when Mrs. Waterman presented her latest recital. The junior concert was given in honor of Thelma Libezeit, standing at right, one of Mrs. Waterman's advanced students. Those performing for parents and friends were, from left, Jane Ann Divinski, 11, of St. Catherine Lavoure School; Remy Quiaot, 12, of Howard Wood School; Aquila Quiaot, 13, of Howard Wood; and Margaret Thomas, 18, of Harbor Junior College. DAR Schools, Museums Will Be Program Topic

The Susan B. Anthony chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will present a special program about DAR Approved Schools and the DAR Museum on Sunday, Nov. 19, at 1 p.m. in the Pacific Club's Regency Room, Long Beach.

The program, planned by Mrs. W. S. Reische, vice regent, will be presided over by Regent Lillian Spence.

Mrs. Norman F. LaPorte of Torrance, immediate past regent of Susan B. Anthony chapter, will report on DAR Approved Schools, singling out Kate Duncan Smith DAR School at Grant, Ala.

The school was established in 1924 by Alabama Daughters for pupils from kindergarten through the 12th grade. It is the only junior-senior high school in the 100 square miles it serves.

Other Torrance women attending the program will be Mrs. H. O. Callison and Mrs. Ruben Langmacher.

In order to merit official DAR approval, a school or college must be for underprivileged boys and girls who would not otherwise have an opportunity for education. The school may also be for foreign-born students or students of foreign parentage.

Those attending the program will also hear a report from Mrs. Frank C. Mayer of La Mesa, California chairman of the DAR Museum. Located at 1776 D Street, Washington, D.C., the museum houses about 7500 items of historical interest.
