

Don't Take Any Lip

Dear Ann: You told Prudence it would take her less time to turn her husband's undershirts and socks and shorts rightside out than it took to write the letter to you complaining about it. Well—time this:

One husband and five boys equals 84 socks per week, 42 undershirts, 42 pairs of shorts, and I'm not counting pajamas, sweatshirts and jerseys.

From the day we married my husband has managed to drop his clothes in the hamper wrong-side out. I reminded him about it several times. He'd remember for a day or two and then slip back into his old ways. Finally I gave up.

Now I'm having the same problem with my sons. The youngest is 8 and the oldest is 16. They gloated when they showed me the column where you said in effect, "Shut up, Mom, and continue to pamper the slob."

Give my regards to your laundress, you traitor. —MAD AT YOU.

Dear Mad At Me: Don't put words in my mouth, Lady. I didn't say, "Shut up, Mom, and continue to pamper the slob." I said, "It takes less time to turn your husband's socks and shorts than to nag him about it."

Your husband came to you trained (or untrained) by his mother but it's your job to do better by your future daughters-in-law than your husband's mother did by you. Insist that your sons do as they're told and don't take any lip.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 15-year-old girl. My mother has been married four times and is in love again. You wouldn't believe the collection of creeps that have walked through her life.

Now she claims I am the cause for all her unhappiness because Eddie has told her the reason he can't marry her is because I don't like him. He is right about my not liking him but I have a hunch he wouldn't marry her no matter what because he is not the marrying kind.

Last night Mom asked me to take my choice of girl's schools because she is sure if I leave town Eddie will marry her.

I wouldn't mind going to a girl's school. It might be fun. But I resent being pushed out of my own home for this drip.

What should I do?—DISPLACED DAUGHTER.

Dear Daughter: The girl's school could be more than fun. It could be a far healthier environment than your home. So — pack your bags and go.

Dear Ann Landers: I was burned up when I read the letter from the teenager who was embarrassed because his mother sang so loud in church. I wish I had his problem.

My father is the loud singer in our family, but the circumstances are a lot different. Dad gets as drunk as a billy goat, comes home anywhere from midnight to 5 a.m. and sings the drinking songs he learned in the Merchant Marine.

A girl I like lives next door and whenever she says, "Your father woke us all up again last night," I want to fall into a hole.

Please publish my letter so the kid with the religious mother will realize he has nothing to be ashamed of. — WILLING TO TRADE PLACES.

Dear Willing: Here's your letter and I hope the kid sees it. It would be nice if your dad saw it, too.

Unsure of yourself on dates? What's right? What's wrong? Should you? Shouldn't you? Send for Ann Landers' booklet "Dating Do's and Don'ts," enclosing your request, 50c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Press-Herald enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

(C) 1967, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate

Postal Patrons Urged To Mail Parcels Early

"Mail early" is the key word for getting Christmas parcels and cards to recipients before Christmas, according to Carl L. Backlund, Torrance postmaster.

Backlund issued a reminder to postal patrons today as the first of the Post Office Department deadlines passed.

He warned that all parcels destined for overseas will have to be sent by Space Available Mail (SAM) or by air mail if they are to be sure to reach their destination before Christmas.

SAM PARCELS are limited to five pounds or less and should be mailed before Dec. 1, Backlund said. Air mail parcels should be mailed between Dec. 1 and 11, he added.

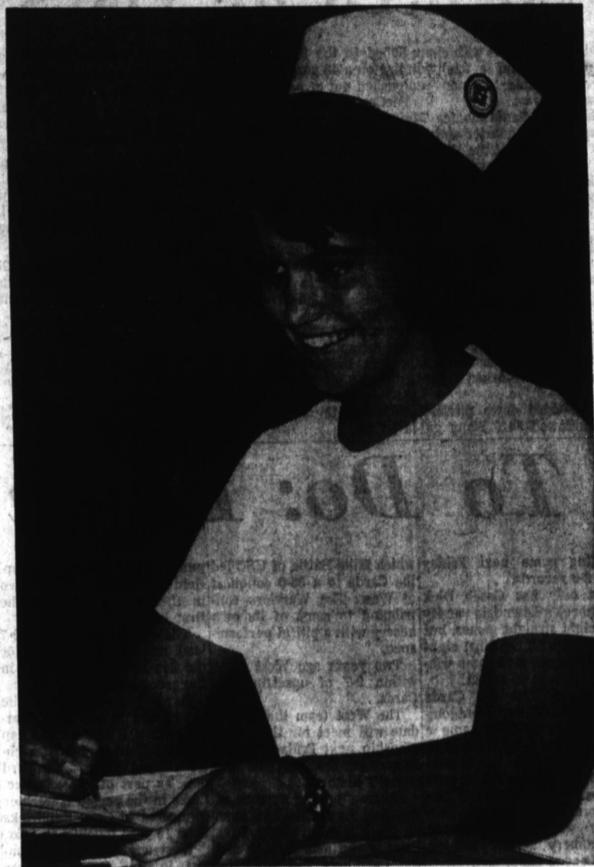

Backlund said domestic parcels destined for distant states should be in the mail by Dec. 4, while a Dec. 13 deadline was established for local parcels. Christmas cards should be mailed prior to PARCELS should be wrapped in strong containers and tied securely, he said. In addition, a piece of paper should be placed inside each parcel giving both the address of destination and the return address.

All parcels should be addressed only on one side and the addresses should be printed, Backlund added. He also reminded patrons to use the ZIP Code on both the address of destination and return address.

NOVEMBER 12, 1967

A-5

HARD AT WORK . . . Miss Kathy Malovich is pictured checking charts at Torrance Memorial Hospital, where she spent the summer working as a nurse's aide. The winner of a $100 scholarship sponsored by the Harbor Area District 21 Nurses Association, Miss Malovich is a third-year student at the University of San Francisco, studying for a bachelor's degree in nursing.

Nursing Scholarship Awarded Summer Aid

A former Banning High School honor student was named recipient of a $100 scholarship by the Harbor Area District 21 Nurses Association.

Miss Kathy Malovich, 19, of Wilmington, was notified of her selection by Mrs. Violet Geres, association president and instructor at Los Angeles Harbor College.

Presently in her third year at the University of San Francisco, Miss Malovich is working for her degree in nursing as well as a nursing credential.

Miss Vyrnie Reintama, District 21 president-elect and Torrance Memorial Hospital director in-service training,

"MISS MALOVICH is an outstanding example of the kind of girls we welcome into the nursing profession. She spent last summer working at Torrance Memorial as a nurse's aide. She was dependable, efficient, intelligent, cooperative, and gracious. The staff and patients all loved her. We were sorry when she had to go back to school," Miss Reintama said.

Awards are not new to Miss Malovich, former studentbody vice president who graduated with honors in 1965. She also received an Elks award for leadership and a $100 Kiwanis award for scholastic achievements.

She served as president of Ladies, a scholastic honorary society, and holds a life membership in Ephebian, a leadership honor society.

MISS MALOVICH is receiving additional financial aid from a National Nursing Defense Loan which lends up to $1,000 a year depending on need, leadership and scholastic ability. If the recipient of such a loan continues in the nursing profession after graduation, 50 per cent of the loan is cancelled.

Miss Malovich said that during high school she spent three years working as a hospital Candy Stripper and it was that experience that convinced her to become a nurse. "I can think of no more rewarding way to spend my life than helping others. I hope to go on for a masters degree. Eventually, I plan to specialize in working with retarded or handicapped children," she said.

Miss Malovich is presently employed on the University of San Francisco campus as a PBX operator to help earn her tuition fees.

DOCTOR HONORED . . . Supervisor Burton W. Chase presents a scroll proclaiming this week at Retarded Children's Week to Dr. Ivy M. Mooring of the Riviera section of Torrance. Dr. Mooring was honored by supervisors last Tuesday for her efforts in behalf of retarded children in this area. She is director of the Mental Retardation Services Board of Los Angeles County.

Social Grace More Than Learning How to Dress

When a woman suggested recently that she is a middle-aged housewife at 31, I was shocked—then reassured. She has no intention of giving up and so sought advice about "finishing schools."

She said, "As a middle-aged housewife (age 31) whose husband feels that perhaps I lack brow-beating, I have advocated one-day clinics where for a set fee any woman can go in, get her personal color chart, be told which styles to wear, how to set her hair and learn the rudiments of proper sitting, standing and walking. After that she would need only practice.

While these hints may help one, they don't insure complete social grace. Now you must learn how to entertain. So many of you don't.

Making guests feel comfortable is the first of all social graces. A small cocktail party for which you hire a bartender offers the opportunity to display social grace. You then have time to mingle with your guests, your husband is free to enjoy himself and what you save in controlled pouring of drinks almost pays the surprisingly inexpensive cost of the bartender. Or try hiring a maid to help you serve dinner.

In short, you must appear relaxed while entertaining or being entertained.

Never admit defeat. If you have a doubt, help is as close as the newspaper, the food editor or the classified ads. Or ask the last person who entertained you, if you thought she was particularly gracious. She'll be delighted to help you, because that's one of her social graces.

COUNT MARCO

complete command of social graces I write to inquire whether you would agree that perhaps a 'finishing school' might be suitable.

Perhaps it would, if you merely want to learn how to stand, sit, make up, dress with style, or even lose pounds. But few of these charm courses can establish true social grace because of their concentration on your outward appearance.

It's like polishing wood. What good is a high gloss, if there is no grain. I have never believed that a woman gets the most benefit from these courses because too much time is spent in classes with others who all have the same problems.

I can IN ONE DAY teach any woman more about proper sitting, standing, walking, speaking, dressing and even entertaining than all the schools put together do in months of heckling and

Honor School Superintendent

Mrs. Mildred Naslund, superintendent of the Los Angeles City Schools' Harbor Elementary Area, will be honored tomorrow by the Los Angeles City Council for her service and contributions to education.

John S. Gibson Jr., councilman from the 15th District, will present a resolution to Mrs. Naslund at 10 a.m. at the Council Chambers at Los Angeles City Hall, 200 N. Spring St.

Mrs. Naslund, who has been superintendent of the Harbor area's 55 elementary schools since February, 1965, has been a teacher and administrator with the Los Angeles City Schools for 22 years.

A native of Los Angeles, Mrs. Naslund attended Fries Elementary School in Wilmington and Banning High School. She received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of Redlands and her master's degree from the University of Southern California. She joined the Los Angeles City Schools in 1945 as a teacher at Hawaiian Avenue Elementary School in Wilmington.

Her husband, Robert, is a professor of education at USC. They live in Manhattan Beach.

Press-Herald Sunday Crossword

(Answer on Page A-7)

ACROSS

- 1-Suspended
- 2-International treaties
- 3-Apprenticed out
- 4-Start
- 5-E. Soviet Russia
- 6-Another time
- 7-Godless or peace
- 8-Atlanta Braves ballplayer
- 9-Play of combat
- 10-Gun (slang)
- 11-Clarified particle
- 12-Small child
- 13-Metric unit of length
- 14-Flat topped hill with steep sides (pl.)
- 15-Kings
- 16-A direction
- 17-Attack
- 18-Battle upon words
- 19-Beam
- 20-Square
- 21-Kind of fabric
- 22-Indicates the head
- 23-Home
- 24-Mountain nymph
- 25-Tool for smoothing surfaces
- 26-Factors
- 27-The dill
- 28-To wipe closely
- 29-In the same place (abbr.)
- 30-Certain relative
- 31-Half a quart
- 32-Busy dummy
- 33-Medical pellet
- 34-Plant of mustard
- 35-Arch
- 36-Kick
- 37-Ambian title
- 38-Games played on horseback
- 39-Certain quarters of big cities (pl.)
- 40-Note floating log by trading
- 41-Camp
- 42-Youth
- 43-Singing voice
- 44-Will water buffalo of India (pl.)
- 45-Tart
- 46-Brown mistle
- 47-Make expiation
- 48-Whack
- 49-A cyst
- 50-Deeply felt
- 51-Small rug
- 52-Toward the sea
- 53-Look at malignity
- 54-Small bee
- 55-Obstetrically with heat
- 56-Obstructions
- 57-SPD
- 58-Labor
- 59-Above
- 60-Exhibit birds
- 61-Exists
- 62-Lowrance for waste
- 63-Natural opening in earth
- 64-Excavated for ore
- 65-One who stays away from school minus permission
- 66-Expensive
- 67-On the . . .
- 68-Kind of snake (pl.)
- 69-Withered
- 70-Frothy mass of fine bubbles
- 71-Article
- 72-Goths
- 73-. . . British crown
- 74-Chief off
- 75-Elder son of Ebur
- 76-Unusually high sea
- 77-About
- 78-Friend
- 79-Ennet
- 80-Sick
- 81-Beverage
- 82-Useful
- 83-Mr. Lagree
- 84-Burn with boiling water
- 85-Fall to follow suit in union
- 86-Men
- 87-One hopelessly behind times (pl.)
- 88-Grafted (Her.)

DOWN

- 1-Rabbit
- 2-American Indians
- 3-States abbr.
- 4-Salted eggplant
- 5-Northern
- 6-Culture medium
- 7-Fetus
- 8-Kind of palm
- 9-Act in a whining manner
- 10-Imposing by persistent repetition
- 11-Correlative of either
- 12-Allow
- 13-Son of Seth
- 14-Inhibit
- 15-A monk of the Eastern Church
- 16-Shower
- 17-Skittle
- 18-In addition
- 19-Head covering
- 20-Belt
- 21-Over (post)
- 22-American Indian
- 23-Fruit of blackthorn
- 24-World organization
- 25-Kind of word
- 26-Feminine name
- 27-Nerve spasm
- 28-Outer garment
- 29-River of Italy
- 30-Consumes
- 31-Scourge
- 32-Stamp
- 33-Part of mouth
- 34-Dee
- 35-Heating vessel
- 36-Makes lace edging
- 37-Criminal
- 38-To add
- 39-Supercilious person
- 40-Stratagem
- 41-American fruit
- 42-Labor
- 43-City of East Germany
- 44-River of Massachusetts
- 45-As it stands (mus.)
- 46-Reactors to firm union
- 47-Superstitious
- 48-Religious song
- 49-Joins with a viscous substance
- 50-Remain erect
- 51-Combining terms
- 52-Check-pa
- 53-Grampus
- 54-Wife of Athamas
- 55-Make offering
- 56-Cluck being
- 57-Observe
- 58-River of Asia
- 59-Tidy
- 60-Part of plant
- 61-Marrow
- 62-Moves to and fro
- 63-Idly
- 64-Tarry
- 65-Stage of insanity
- 66-Roman post
- 67-Serve
- 68-Covers with asphalt
- 69-Adhesive band
- 70-To state
- 71-Queen . . .
- 72-Female ruff
- 73-Brings legal action against
- 74-Afternoon parties
- 75-Policeman (slang)
- 76-Fairy tale monsters
- 77-Mat's nickname
- 78-Sea nymphs
- 79-Expression of ecstasy
- 80-Spanish for yes
- 81-Executed
- 82-Symbol for cobalt
- 83-Involuntary muscle contraction
- 84-Entrée
- 85-Charge upon
- 86-Face
- 87-Dance step
- 88-Man's name
- 89-Citrus fruit
- 90-American Indian
- 91-The self (pl.)
- 92-Butter substitute
- 93-Bolivian Indian
- 94-Opposed to sweather
- 95-Part of body
- 96-Hindu cymbals
- 97-Sun up
- 98-French article
- 99-A volume
- 100-Bell-Cure Syndicate Feature

Mayor Signs Christmas Seal Proclamation

Christmas Seal Season in Torrance was formerly declared last week by the City Council.

Mayor Albert Isen proclaimed that the season should last through Dec. 31 and urged that area residents contribute generously to the campaign.

The proclamation was made in view of the fact that emphysema and other respiratory diseases are one of the most serious health problems facing the community.