

Cal State Concert Set Monday

The Women's Chorale at California State College, Dominguez Hills, will present its annual Christmas program in the Theatre Upstairs Monday evening at 8:30.

Selections from 14th, 18th, 18th, and 20th Century compositions will be featured.

Harpist Malcolm and Frances Steiner, cellist and pianist, will appear with the Chorale. Mrs. Addie Morton Gibbs will be the dance soloist in the featured work, "Jolly Wat" by Colin Hand.

Vocalists who will appear will include Kay Young, a sophomore, who will sing "Ave Maria" by Tromboncino and "A Christmas Hymn" by Marshall Bialosky, and Ron Wilson, a sophomore, who will sing "Three Mystical Songs" by Alec Rowley. Wilson will be accompanied by Dorothy Gazely.

The first student instrumental group formed at the college will make its debut playing music by Purcell and Martini. Glenn Eden, Charles Gerlach, and others compose the group.

Professor David Rankin will read contemporary American poems.

A Letter from A 10-Year-Old

Dear Santa Claus,

What I would like for Christmas, more than anything else in the whole wide world is that new toy that makes funny things to eat.

I don't know the name of it but those people whose toys are swell sell it. You know what, Santa Claus, you can make the grooviest things—beetle brittle, octopusses, gingerbread men, turtle soap, fabyouluss frogs, and even fancy flowers. I have been an awfully good girl this year and I will send you a lush lizard or a sparkling star which I can make myself in the sooper-gooper oven. Tell me, Santa, what flavor is your favorite? The gobbie-degoop flavors—they taste just like gum drops—are licorice, mint, cherry, butterscotch, root beer and cinnamon. Sorry about that last flavor but I don't know how to spell it.

Mommy even says I can ask you for it cause the gobbie-degoop is sugarless, and it's safe to use, and I'll spend so much time with it I won't bother her. Merry Christmas.

Your friend,

Jig
