

Forensic Squad Earns Trophies

El Camino College speakers received two trophies during a tournament at the University of California at Berkeley last weekend.

Dan Shaw received a second place trophy in the men's division for his speech advocating the taxing of profits from church-owned businesses and investments.

Barbara Matson received a third place trophy in the women's division which called for citizens to become involved helping each other during times of emergency. Miss Matson entered the semi-final round of women's oral interpretation where she presented a program of selected readings on the theme of "silence."

Bob Morrisette qualified for the semi-final round in men's persuasive speaking with his speech concerning the pressures on today's college students.

The El Camino debate team of Shawn Johnson and Rachel Jacobs went undefeated in the six preliminary rounds of debate and qualified for octafinals where they lost to a team from Loyola University. The subject of the 1967-68 national debate resolution is "Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Guarantee an Annual Cash Income to All its Citizens."

The ECC forensic squad is presently preparing for the Junior College Fall Championships which will take place Dec. 1-2 at Los Angeles Pierce College.
