

As They Make Their Bows

These members of Las Ninas de Las Madrecitas, having completed the requirements of 25 hours of service at Orthopaedic Hospital and 25 hours of community service, don their loveliest gowns for their presentation at the Las Madrecitas Evergreen Ball held last evening. They are from left, Nancy Cunningham, chatting with Kathryn Shull, Stephanie Sides and Christine Novak.

Crippled Children Benefit From

Las Madrecitas' Annual Ball

Pacific Coast Club on Ocean Blvd. in Long Beach was the setting last evening for one of the most outstanding social events of the holiday season when Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital, presented its annual "Evergreen Ball."

The 450 guests were entertained at a pre-ball cocktail party in the Blue Room and later were surrounded by pink and silver feather Christmas trees while dining in the Sunset Room. A large black Spanish fan enhanced the Spanish decor.

Highlight of the evening came with the presentation of 11 young debutantes by Mrs. Hans Hansen and Mrs. Howard S. Anderson. The young women are members of the junior auxiliary Las Ninas de Las Madrecitas and are daughters or friends of Las Madrecitas or Las Amigas de las Lomas auxiliaries.

Making their bows were Misses Katherine Anne Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence John Burke, Rolling Hills, escorted by James Michael Whitson; Nancy Elizabeth Cooksey, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. George Dewey Cooksey, Jr., Palos Verdes, escorted by Randall Edwin Greer; Nancy Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Joseph Cunningham, Palos Verdes Peninsula, escorted by Morgan James Mackay.

Others were Misses Penelope Ann Brenda Gale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Boynton Gale, Palos Verdes Estates, escorted by Michael James Phillips; Laura Lorene Hippe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hippe, Palos Verdes Estates, escorted by Lawrence Charles Plank; Kellie Elizabeth Lyle, daughter of the Edward Lyles, Palos Verdes Peninsula, escorted by Daniel Doremus Whitcraft III.

Also Misses Sarabeth Mayhall, daughter of the William Mayhalls, Palos Verdes Peninsula, escorted by Daniel Robert Place; Christine Virginia Novak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart Novak, Palos Verdes Peninsula, escorted by Richard Laird Anderson; Elizabeth Ann Raymond, daughter of Flight Lt. and Mrs. John Raymond, Redondo Beach, escorted by Gerald Lloyd Brady; Stephanie Sides, whose parents are Lt. Col. and Mrs. Jack Sides, Palos Verdes Peninsula, escorted by Keith Samuel Rodaway, Jr., and Katherine Alice Shull, daughter of the C. Blaine Shulls of Palos Verdes Estates, escorted by Michael David Levy.

Mrs. Richard D. Quinn, club advisor, stated that each girl presented must have earned and donated 25 hours of service to Orthopaedic hospital and 25 more hours of service to local community projects.

Mrs. Charles P. McMullens served as chairman of the Evergreen Ball with Mrs. Samuel Carmelli, co-chairman. Other committee chairmen were Mmes. Philip Horwith, invitations; William B. Haughton, reservations; David B. Congleton, seating; John Dougherty, decorations; and R. W. Speich, programs.

Proceeds from the annual event will go toward the $33,000 pledge made by Las Madrecitas to furnish a six crib pediatric ward at Orthopaedic Hospital. Since its organization in 1956, Las Madrecitas has already donated $23,000.

Enchanted Evening Theme

Dianas' Yule Dance

Members of the Redondo Beach Dianas and their husbands will be enjoying an evening of dining and dancing with "Enchanted Evening" as the theme of the event. The Christmas dinner-dance will be held at Lococo's Restaurant on Dec. 9 with cocktail hour beginning at 7, dinner at 8 and dancing at 9 p.m.

Mrs. Gregory Grime, chairman, announced that each person attending the holiday social will bring a homemade Christmas tree ornament to be placed on a Christmas tree at the dance. The ornaments will then be distributed to needy families in the area.

Mrs. Donald Condie is in charge of the decorations. The Redondo Beach Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.
