

Tartar Teen Talk

By Pam Anderson

"It's the time of year when the world falls in love." Isn't that the way the song goes? Torrance High could use this song for a theme as the Christmas holidays fast approach.

Tomorrow will bring the annual Feast of Lights program starring the Tartar Choir, Tartar Wind Ensemble, combined Glee Club and Men's Chorus, and the Modern Dance Club. The advanced art students will add something new and different this year. THS's spectacular holiday production is tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Admission is free.

THE CANNED FOOD drive for the needy and underprivileged is still under way at school. Cans are collected and weighed according to classes. The class with the most tonnage will have their class princess reign as queen at the Valentine Dance. Cans will be collected up until Friday, so when some Tartar comes ringing your door bell, give a can or two for the not-so-fortunate this Christmas.

Another drive with the spirit of Christmas in mind is the Toy Drive sponsored by the Medical Careers Club. All the toys collected will go to children that have to spend Christmas in a hospital. Santa needs your help so bring a toy for underprivileged children.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn has demanded — and won — assurance that no pay raises will be given county department heads and approximately 300 other executives during the 1967-68 fiscal year.

A resolution to that effect was authored by Hahn during a discussion of an executive salary survey now in progress by the Citizens' Economy and Efficiency Committee.

Hahn has referred to the study as a "backdoor approach to big salary increases for the highest paid county employees."

HE HAS ALSO complained because the committee has refused to make public the report of a private firm on county salaries.

Telephones help make Christmas merrier.

There is no substitute for a real family Christmas. But it seldom happens anymore.

Somebody is always in school or the service. Families go where their jobs take them—often thousands of miles away. If you can gather your whole clan together for Christmas, you should indeed be thankful.

If you can't all be together, certainly telephone calls over the Christmas weekend are in order.

There's another way telephones help make Christmas merrier: Extension phones, the thoughtful and very personal extra gift that really rings the bell. It's hard to think of another gift that costs so little yet will be appreciated every day of the year.

To order extensions for gifts, call your General Telephone business office now. They will see to it that the extensions you order are sent in handsome gift boxes to be put under the tree, and arrange for installation after Christmas.

And if you don't feel like giving extensions, call anyway and say Merry Christmas.

That's what we wish you.
