

END OF AN ERA . . . One of Redondo Beach's early business buildings, one which had housed a wide variety of activities from banking to city administration, gave way piece by piece to the wrecking crews last week as renewal activities in the beach city centered around Coral Way and Pacific Avenue. Here a couple of workmen look at the jumble of material which put up a losing battle against the heavy wrecker's iron and concrete ball swung at the end of a crane. ## Navy, Montgomery Youths Join to Help Vietnamese

Food stuffs, clothing, school supplies, and various other items currently are being collected by students at Bishop Montgomery High School as part of "Project Handclasp."

Trips Planned

Weekly field trips have been scheduled by the Gardena Christian School's Summer Enrichment Day Camp, beginning June 19. Trips to Marineland, Griffith Park Zoo and Observatory, Exposition Park, Knott's Berry Farm, and International Airport have been planned. The summer camp is for children ages 4½ through 12.

Great Catch

Low calorie, high protein, easy-to-fix meals begin with Deming's Salmon. For free recipe ideas, write Peter Pan Seafoods, Dexter Horton Bldg., Seattle, Wash.

The project is a joint effort of the sophomore class at Montgomery and the U.S. Navy and will continue through May 26.

Cmdr. William R. Wagner is directing the project for the Navy and Father Hubert and Sister Marian Joseph, sophomore class moderators, are directing the project for Montgomery High School.

"To be a success, support of the project is needed from all people in the area, not just students," Greg Reams, sophomore class president, explained. Homerooms at the school get credit for the items which they take to the school and at the end of the drive the top boys' room and top girls' room will receive engraved trophies.

Among the items which are being collected are clothing (children's sizes are especially needed since the average Vietnamese is rather small), diapers, pencils, new or used

Name President

Frank Farnacio has been installed as president of the newly formed chapter of the National Junior Honor Society at Carnegie Junior High School. Other officers are Nelson Ho, vice president; Helen Rivera, secretary; and Ralph Jackson, treasurer.
