

Judges For Elementary Science Fair Selected

Thirteen local science leaders have been named as judges for the Torrance elementary school district science fair.

Sisters Win Top Awards

Three sisters walked off with top honors in the Arnold Elementary School Academic Fair, held in observance of Public Schools Week.

Two of the sisters won trophies, while the third girl won a first place certificate. Each girl scored her victory in a different area.

Trophy winners include Julie Ross, language arts, and her sister, Laurie, top winner in the mathematics-science category. The third Ross sister, Sheri, won the first-place certificate in the art competition.

TWO OTHER sisters, Kathi and Kristi Fisher, were first place winners in the social science category.

Winner of the fine arts trophy was Jill McDevitt.

Other first-place certificates were awarded in the following areas — art: Jill McDevitt, Richard Winner; English: Julie Ross; a group entry by Jeannie DiFiore Sherryl Edmonds, Deborah Nagel, Leri Kanak, and Jeanne Irvin; science: Lindsey Wood, Laurie Ross, and a group entry by Mark Anderson, Brad Benter, John Reed, Nancy Knox, and Susan Stubbs.

Other areas included — reading: Anne Willoughby, Arthur Buita, Carol Powowarski and Charlene Ricks; mathematics: John Fedland, Robert Joubert; foreign language: Linda Attridge, Lorri Evans; and social sciences: Diane Krausz, and Cindy Adams, Lorri Evens.

$2,000 Haul Taken From Medical Lab

Business machines and a microscope valued at $900 were stolen from a Torrance medical laboratory, Torrance police were told Thursday.

Margaret Steeves reported the theft, which occurred at a laboratory at 1118 Crenshaw Blvd. She told police she discovered the theft when she reported for work about 8:15 a.m. Thursday.

In addition to the microscope, a typewriter, an adding machine, and a radio were taken, along with $125 in cash. The loss was placed at $1,925.
