

Crusade Leader Named

Groundwork for one of the most ambitious United Crusade campaigns ever conducted in the Harbor area is being carried out by a team of volunteers under the leadership of Howard (Dave) Holland.

Holland, who is assistant vice president and manager of the Bank of America in Torrance, is the 1967 area campaign chairman for the United Crusade. He was vice chairman of the combined United Way-Red Cross fund drive last year.

"With an early start and true dedication on the part of our Crusade campaign cabinet, we fully expect to raise more money here this fall than ever before," Holland declared.

HOLLAND, who had been active in a number of Harbor area civic and community programs, is a member of the United Way board. He is a member of the Torrance Kiwanis Club.

A resident of Westchester, he and his wife, June, are parents of two teenage children.

Holland will direct all United Crusade campaign activities in 1967 in the Harbor area. Communities aided by the drive include Torrance, Gardena, Lomita, Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills, Harbor City, San Pedro, and Wilmington.

MEET NATIONAL LEADER . . . Members of the Los Angeles Horizon Club cabinet plan for future activities with advice from Dr. Hester Turner (at right), new national executive director of Camp Fire Girls, Inc. Dr. Turner spent last week in Los Angeles at a Horizon Club conference. Pictured with her are (from left) Sue McCay, president; Nancy Davis, decorations chairman; Janis Johnson, vice president; Cheri Moon, secretary; and Kathy Adams. Miss Davis and Miss Johnson are members of Torrance area clubs.

Horizon Clubs Hold Workshop

More than 300 Horizon Club members and chaperons from nine councils of Camp Fire Girls have concluded a Los Angeles conference on the theme, "Where Will You Be When Tomorrow Comes?"

Featured speaker at the conference was Dr. Hester Turner, new national executive director of Camp Fire Girls, Inc. Dr. Turner is a former dean of students at Lewis and Clark College.

Girls attended workshops dealing with such subjects as thorough development of the individual, adjustment to college life, and job horizons for the high school graduate. Seminars were small to give

Treasurer Of Year Selected

George Rigby, a 17-year-old senior at Torrance High, has won fourth place in a national creative writing contest sponsored by Scholastic Magazine. Rigby won in the dramatic script division.

Tom Henricks, a 16-year-old student at Bishop Montgomery High School, has been selected as the Junior Achievement Treasurer of the Year at the Southwest Business Center in Hawthorne.

The announcement was made by Donald Stoddard, chairman of the Los Angeles Chapter of the National Association of Accountants (NAA), which sponsored the contest.

Henricks was selected for the honor for his excellence in maintaining accurate and complete financial records for the Bellflower Co., a JA firm counseled by Pacific Telephone Co.

The firm's records were audited each month by members of the NAA, Stoddard said.

Henricks will compete with winners from 11 other JA centers for the title of Treasurer of the Year in Southern California. The Southland winner will receive an all-expense paid trip to the University of Indiana in August.

Talk About Cuba Slated On Tuesday

"Behind the Sugar Cane Curtain" will be the subject of a talk by Miss Margarita Alexander Tuesday at a meeting of the United Republicans of California (UROC) Unit 496.

Miss Alexander, from Coast Federal Savings and Loan Association, will speak at 7:30 p.m. at the Torrance Family YMCA, 2900 W. Sepulveda Blvd. She will discuss Castro's takeover in Cuba.

All interested Republicans have been invited to attend the meeting.

YOUNG BUILDERS . . . David and Daniel Watson, two-thirds of the John Watson family's triplet sons, show Betty Skiver, OTR, Harbor General Hospital therapist, how to put together building blocks to make trains, wagons, and houses. While considered toys by the Watsons, the blocks are used in the hospital to develop muscles and to help recuperating children.

ANN LANDERS

The Truth Pays Off Once Again

Dear Ann Landers: I hope you will continue to advise girls who have had babies out of wedlock to tell their sweethearts BEFORE they marry. This is what happened to me:

I had a little boy out of wedlock and decided to keep him. I cooked up a story about a brief, unsuccessful marriage which most people believed. When I met Ron I told him I was divorced. After several months of dating he asked me to marry him. I felt like the luckiest girl in the world.

Two weeks before the wedding my mother took me aside and told me I would be doing a terrible thing if I married Ron under the cloud of a lie. I wept and insisted I couldn't take a chance on losing Tim. If he was unable to accept me because of my past I would just die. After hours of talking, my mother persuaded me that she was right.

I told Ron the very next night. His reply was, "I knew it. I was just waiting to hear it from you. And now there is nothing between us to mar our perfect love."

So you see, Ann, once again truth paid off in a way that a lie never could. Please keep telling the girls who are in my boat that there is only one way to handle this problem. The honest way. — A HAPPY MRS. WITH A CLEAR CONSCIENCE

Dear Happy Mrs.: You told them, dear. And on behalf of all the girls whose minds you may have changed, I thank you.

Dear Ann Landers: Quite some time ago my daughter-in-law suddenly stopped talking to my daughter. I tried to learn the details but nobody would talk about it.

This family rift bothered me and I decided to get to the bottom of it. Last week I wrote my daughter-in-law and asked her to tell me why she had stopped talking to my daughter. I said, "perhaps there was a misunderstanding which I can help iron out." I was shocked at her answer. She wrote, "I have always despised your daughter and decided to stop going through the hypocritical motions of being nice to her."

This reply cut into my heart like a knife. How should I treat my son and his wife now? Should I ignore them as they have ignored my daughter? Or should I pretend that I did not receive the letter of explanation?—SORRY I ASKED

Dear Sorry: Let this be a lesson to all self-appointed menders of ruptured relationships. The golden slogan "Mind Your Own Business" should be the cardinal rule for well-intentioned "fixers." Now, say nothing more. You've said too much already.

Dear Ann Landers: I met this girl when we were counselors at a camp last summer. We are both 14. My parents met her and they like her a lot. She wants me to spend a weekend with her (it is a nice bus ride from here, about 60 miles), but my folks won't let me go because they have never met her parents.

Does this make sense? I don't think so and I hope you'll be on my side. — MISSED Q

Dear Missed: I suggest that the girl's mother write or telephone your mother and introduce herself. This would make your folks less uneasy about allowing you to make the trip. P.S. You are a girl aren't you? I'm assuming this although you didn't say.

When romantic glances turn to warm embraces is it love or chemistry? Send for the booklet "Love Or Sex And How To Tell The Difference," by Ann Landers. Enclose a long, stamped self-addressed envelope and 35¢ in coin with your request. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Press-Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (C) 1967, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate

'No Blubbering Idiot' Now, Thanks to Count

"Dear Count Marco: I would love to bet that someone thought you would make a great hit and lots of money writing a nasty column about American marriages and that is your motivation.

It may interest you to know that your column has enlightened me and I am no longer a blubbering idiot. I no longer read your column. Haven't you ever heard that you can catch more flies with honey than vinegar?"

COUNT MARCO

Yes, I have heard you can catch more flies with honey than vinegar, but I must say you have strange tastes indeed. If you relish the idea of looking like a fly-covered garbage truck, just you keep spreading your honey, dear. It shouldn't take long.

☆☆☆

"Dear Count: I'm curious. Do you suppose that woman who was afraid to bathe with her husband because he got tar on her kisses her husband? I would think she would get more gruesome germs that way than from bathing together. Perhaps she is a prude and undresses in the bathroom, door locked, wears red flannel pajamas, and sleeps in twin beds. I honestly feel that the American woman needs something to spur her onto the right track."

Too many wives get sidetracked on the wrong spur. But the one mentioned is undoubtedly stuck in a tunnel somewhere and it's not a tunnel of love, that's for sure.

☆☆☆

"Dear Count Marco: Would you be good enough to tell me where I can get a good live-in housekeeper for $200 a month?"

I know there are $200 housekeepers available but they are NOT good. I have tried them. And their demands — everything but breakfast in bed. Thank you."

—Mr. L. J.

Keep trying them. One of these days you may hit it lucky and find one who wants her breakfast in bed as well

☆☆☆

Dear Count Marco: Re the insulting letters you receive from low types of women, don't worry. The high types are all for you. Have you ever noticed the low type driving a car, cigarette hanging loose in her lips, not held daintily but just dangling there like a tough pool hound in a cheap pool hall, and a snotty look on her face. I pick them every time."

Some picker you are. How would you describe one of those high types that are all for me. Would they be anything like a $200 a month live-in housekeeper who demands everything in bed but breakfast?

☆☆☆

Here's a gentle note from what must be a sweet, refined old lady.

"Count, I'm going to hate to write this but I just can't help myself. You ill-advised moron. A woman can always get a man. You lousy, conceited stupid egotistical dope. You spoil more marriages than anyone possibly could. Men are a bunch of crabs." —A LOOKER BUT NOT A BELIEVER

Madam, a crab is not an animal, and man being of the animal kingdom therefore can never be a crab but only a lovable beast.

Press-Herald Sunday Crossword

(Answer on Page A-8)

ACROSS

- 1—Belong to the victor
- 2—Office of strategic services
- 3—Sizable
- 4—Raided platform
- 5—Where the shooting is
- 6—Certain dimensions of
- 7—Irregular
- 8—Wine
- 9—Minor medieval coin of Italy
- 10—Tactful deity
- 11—Golf club
- 12—Group pulling together
- 13—Musical syllable
- 14—As it stands (mus.)
- 15—Cover inner surface of again
- 16—Slight flap (pl.)
- 17—Abstract being
- 18—Biblican deity
- 19—About
- 20—Japanese coin
- 21—A direction
- 22—Short for West Coast character
- 23—Collection of facts
- 24—Steep slope of a hill
- 25—Littered horses
- 26—Color lightly
- 27—Lewis Carroll character
- 28—Breathes loudly
- 29—Wink
- 30—Inclination
- 31—Littered spirits of
- 32—Inclines
- 33—Japanese porgia
- 34—A small anchor
- 35—To aid
- 36—To free of
- 37—Sun weight
- 38—Title of respect
- 39—On pronoun
- 40—Snubs
- 41—Roman bronze
- 42—Clock in shape of ship
- 43—Shaman beings
- 44—Withered old woman
- 45—Malays
- 46—Says to taste
- 47—A direction
- 48—Kind of engineer
- 49—Things in law
- 50—Armed galley of old Northmen
- 51—Brings forth
- 52—Armed conflict
- 53—S. 1416
- 54—Four
- 55—Chinese secret society
- 56—Kind of oil
- 57—Billiard shot
- 58—Upper house of Congress
- 59—Weight
- 60—Portable trough for mortar
- 61—Mr. Clay
- 62—Egyptian deity
- 63—Gypsy husband
- 64—Street Arab
- 65—Engage in winter sport
- 66—Go by
- 67—Pictorial placard
- 68—Decay
- 69—River of France
- 70—Salty solution
- 71—Follows close behind
- 72—River (slang)
- 73—Verandas
- 74—Vincent actor
- 75—Fondles
- 76—Timorous
- 77— chat, dancing caper
- 78—Sweetop
- 79—Teen-aged British
- 80—Style in clothes
- 81—Short for a lung disease
- 82—Cooled lava
- 83—Short for chemist's workshop
- 84—Salar diet
- 85—Spanish here
- 86—Tiny
- 87—Heater covering
- 88—A shivering of
- 89—An Archbishop of Canterbury
- 90—Plural ending
- 91— Hari
- 92— be it
- 93—Greeting exclamation
- 94—Awry
- 95—City of Chaldea
- 96—Greeted
- 97—Flowed in broken, noisy current
- 98—Having no natural light
- 99—Inherent character
- 100—Worm
- 101— Anger
- 102— City on Mississippi

DOWN

- 1—Sweet
- 2—Hebrew letter
- 3—Baseball Hall of Famer
- 4—Sleaved frock of early Ireland
- 5—Roman household gods
- 6— Propitious
- 7—Portant
- 8—More peaceful society (abbr.)
- 9—Of the ear
- 10—A court
- 11—Paper money (pl.)
- 12— dish (pl.)
- 13— combat
- 14— handmaid
- 15—Surface to air missile
- 16—French for "hand"
- 17—Quiet
- 18— pronoun
- 19— rodent
- 20—Very important
- 21—French for summer
- 22— puts at regular intervals
- 23— One trained in some mechanic trade
- 24— Fabled
- 25— of Panama
- 26— one's nest
- 27— Tierra Fuego Indian
- 28— The Great, Holy
- 29— Just before late twilight
- 30— Spanish title (pl.)
- 31— Unguent for hair
- 32— Sun god
- 33— A kind of fabric
- 34— Bishop's headdress
- 35— South Africans
- 36— Fall away to leeward
- 37— Giant armadillo
- 38— Kind of oak (pl.)
- 39— Letter of alphabet
- 40— A beverage
- 41— Westward
- 42— Burdensome
- 43— Employ
- 44— Symbol for iron
- 45— Broad neck scarf
- 46— Founder of psychoanalysis
- 47— Variable of scale
- 48— A kin
- 49— Small boy
- 50— Unwilling
- 51— Pets (colloq.)
- 52— Stinging insect
- 53— Tune
- 54— Great letter
- 55— That thing
- 56— Egg drink
- 57— A knot in wood
- 58— Signed voucher for small debt
- 59— King Arthur's lance
- 60— Symbol for cesium
- 61— Manuscript (abbr.)
- 62— Symbol for nickel
- 63— Savory meat jelly
- 64— Drunkard
- 65— Troubles
- 66— Allotted
- 67— Greatest amount
- 68— Characteristic of old age
- 69— Roman emperor
- 70— Rodent
- 71— Very important
- 72— French for summer
- 73— Puts at regular intervals
- 74— One trained in some mechanic trade
- 75— Fabled
- 76— of Panama
- 77— one's nest
- 78— Tierra Fuego Indian
- 79— The Great, Holy
- 80— Just before late twilight
- 81— Spanish title (pl.)
- 82— Unguent for hair
- 83— Sun god
- 84— A kind of fabric
- 85— Bishop's headdress
- 86— South Africans
- 87— Fall away to leeward
- 88— Giant armadillo
- 89— Kind of oak (pl.)
- 90— Letter of alphabet
- 91— A beverage
- 92— Westward
- 93— Burdensome
- 94— Employ
- 95— Symbol for iron
- 96— Broad neck scarf
- 97— Founder of psychoanalysis
- 98— Variable of scale
- 99— A kin

