

Horses Run For Charity Funds

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MAY 17, 1967

B-1

Mothers of Twins Club For: Sunair Home for Asthmatic Children

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club has set Wednesday, May 24, as the date for its annual "Day at the Races" at Hollywood Park. Club members and guests will gather at the clubhouse at 1:15 p.m. when the first race will be run. A race will be named for the club and two representatives will go to the winners circle to congratulate the jockey.

Proceeds will go to club's favorite philanthropy the Sunair Home for Asthmatic Children in Tujunga.

Visiting the park to complete final plans are, from left, Mmes. William Ross, Gardena; Jerry Steinbrecher, Torrance, president, and William R. Campbell, chairman. Mrs. Campbell is being assisted by Mrs. Charles Luttrell of Torrance and either may be called for tickets.

Starlight Roof of the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach will be the setting for Las Fiestadores' annual Installation Dinner Dance Saturday evening. A pre-dance cocktail party, from 6:30 until 8:30, will be held at the San Pedro home of Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Jones. Myriads of candles will glow as dancers dine, dance and install their committee for the coming year. Choosing candles to use for the formal affair are, from left, Mmes. Joseph Eisenbrandt and J. Henry Backlund, admiring a color selection, while Mmes. James Kimble and L. G. Jones count bottles for containers, and Mrs. Robert Triplitt chooses an oil lamp replica for a candleholder. (Press-Herald Photo)

Las Vecinas Club For: PAR Workshop for Mentally Retarded

Area residents are invited to join the Las Vecinas Woman's Club for its annual benefit "Day at the Races" on Friday, May 26. Club members and their guests will gather in the reserved seat section at the clubhouse for the first race at 1:15 p.m.

Proceeds from this major fund raising event for Las Vecinas will go to the PAR Workshop that provides testing and evaluation to the mentally retarded and assistance and guidance to their parents. The PAR Workshop maintains training classes for all ages, pre-nursery through adulthood.

Las Vecinas has announced that funds in excess of the amount designated for the PAR Workshop will be used to sponsor a Little League team.

Pictured, at the left, are Mrs. Walter Fleming, left, chairman of the "Day at the Races" and her co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Hein, as they complete plans at the track. Tickets may be obtained by calling either of the chairmen.

Dancing By Candlelight

Engagement

VICKI COAST

Coast - LeBlanc

Mr. Keith Coast, 2749 Gramercy Ave., announces the engagement of his daughter, Vicki Lynn, to George Minott LeBlanc, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphe LeBlanc, 815 Cranbrook Ave., Torrance.

No date has been set for the wedding.

The future bride, a Torrance High School graduate, is employed by Scientific Data Systems, West Los Angeles.

Her fiancé, also a Torrance High graduate, is employed by Safeway in Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Reception Planned May 27

Hallquists Note Golden Date

MR., MRS. GUNNAR HALLQUIST
... Married 50 Years
(Press-Herald Photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar C. Hallquist, 1533 W. 206th St., Torrance, observed their Golden Wedding anniversary Tuesday, May 16. The couple, who have made their home in Torrance for the past several years, were married in Springfield Mass., May 16, 1917. Mr. Hallquist retired from the Rotary Machine Co. in Lynn Mass., where he was employed as a tool and diemaker.

The anniversary celebrants have two daughters, Mrs. Richard K. Ofield of Garnish Drive, Downey and Mrs. Gordon Akers, of Laurette St., Torrance.

Adding to their joy are four grandchildren, Mrs. William Lipscomb of Cudahy, Calif.; Richard Ofield, Jr., Downey; Robert G. Akers, serving with the United States Army at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.; and Cheryl M. Akers of Torrance.

Two great-grandchildren are Kathrine and Denise Lipscomb of Cudahy.

The couple will be honored at a Golden Wedding Celebration on May 27 at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ofield in Downey.

At The Helm

Activities of the Welcome Wagon Club, designed to be of interest to all newcomers of the area, will be directed during the coming year by new officers installed at a luncheon Wednesday. Vice-president with the new president are, from left, Mmes. Eugene Stinson and James Sullivan, second and third; Wayne Zarfos, president; Gerald McAlpen and Kendall Klossner, fourth and first.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Torrance Welcome Wagon

Installs Officers At Luncheon Meet

Torrance Welcome Wagon Club installed its new officers at a luncheon meeting Thursday noon at the Redondo Elks Club, with Mrs. Wayne Zarfos assuming the duties of the presidency for the 1967-68 year.

Installed to assist Mrs. Zarfos with directing activities of the Welcome Wagon Club during the coming year were Mmes. Kendall Klossner, Eugene Stinson, Gerald McAlpen and James Sullivan, vice presidents; Stephen H. Butler, recording secretary; Colin Coombs, corresponding secretary; Victor C. Esposito, treasurer; Donald D. Sturt, historian; and John Nartenson, parliamentarian.

The Welcome Wagon Club is composed of newcomers to the Torrance area and its program is made up of a variety of activities planned to interest all members.

Chairmanships for these activities were assigned to Mmes. Harlan Curwick, "Trips for Kicks"; Dennis C. Kirk, welfare section; Bert Hall, publicity; Michael Cochran, hospitality; Richard Irons, co-membership; Duke Aguiar, co-reservations; William Rittenhouse, decorations; and James W. Ryan, civics.

Other chairmen appointed were Mmes. Michael Hillerman, babysitting; Robert Hitchcox, bowling; Richard Odgers, book discussion; and Donald Martin, hostess.