

The Mail Ego

By Terrence O'Flaherty

"Please give me some data regarding Diana Rigg of 'The Avengers.' Age? Nationality? Experienced?"

32. English. You bet!

"Why oh why do we have another late night talk show? Isn't there an excess of such programs on the air now?"

The local stations are running out of movies and very few of them can afford to develop programming of their own. The plug-and-palaver shows are the only answer. For this reason the Johnny Carson Show, for example, does $25 million worth of business a year for NBC.

"I have a question about Jane Asher, who is Paul 'Beeble' McCartney's girl friend. Is her mother an acrobat?"

Her mother is an oboe teacher. If she is also an acrobat, she is the only one who also plays the oboe.

"Who is Christopher George, the actor on 'Bat Patrol'? He is good and I have never seen him before. Is he Italian?"

He's an American of Greek parentage. He resumes filming on the popular TV series next week. His home studio—Paramount—considers him to be the next Humphrey Bogart. He's a bachelor and led an adventurous life before studying drama in New York. His early education was in Greek schools. His first theatrical experience was in Greek drama—done in GREEK. He now lives in Beverly Hills, a little Greek community near Hollywood.

"What has happened to Martha Raye? She used to be all over television and now she has disappeared."

The dynamic Miss Raye is starring in the title role of "Hello Dolly" in New York, replacing Ginger Rogers, who replaced Carol Channing. All three will continue to play the show as long as the sequins and feathers hold out.

"What's 'Casino Royale' all about, anyway?"

Not even the directors could answer that—and there were five of them. It is a formless, wild, way-out and lavishly produced helping of pneumatic ladies and slapstick humor lasting over two hours. (It just seems longer.) Any resemblance to the James Bond novel is accidental. It is as subtle as a pie in the face but never dull.

"If 'Star Trek' goes off television, so do I. Everything!"

Lomita Dance Club to Meet

"The Clansmen," a youth band composed of Lomita youngsters, will entertain Friday evening at the Teen Dance Club's weekly dance at Lomita Recreation Center. Theme for the evening will be "Cartoon Night." The dance club is open to anyone between 9 and 14 years of age.

like seems to be taken off the air and I hope it doesn't hold true for this series."

"Star Trek" is on the NBC schedule for next season and the program has continued to increase in popularity. It appeals to scientists as well as children, according to the network. It also appeals to the ladies who like men with pointed ears.

"I'm crazy about Lee Meriwether on 'Time Tunnel,' but is she married? Where can I write to her? How old is she? And how did she get into movies?"

Miss Meriwether is in her early thirties. She was born in Los Angeles, later moved to Phoenix and then to San Francisco at the age of 18. She became Miss San Francisco, then Miss California and finally Miss America in 1955. She's a lively, wonderful person and married for 9 years to Frank Aletter, the actor, who recently co-starred in "It's About Time." Write to her care of Twentieth Century-Fox Studios, Los Angeles.

Kanine Korner

By Francis X. Lohmann

Napoleon Bonaparte during his exile recalled many times an incident of his retreat from Moscow. The would-be world conqueror wrote: "Suddenly I saw a dog coming out from under the clothes of a corpse. He rushed forward toward us and then returned to his retreat, uttering mournful cries. He licked the face of his dead master and darted toward us again. It seemed to me that he was seeking aid and vengeance at the same time."

Napoleon further wrote — "Perhaps it was my state of mind, or the place, the time, the climate or even possibly the act itself, I can't say with any degree of accuracy but this much I do know, never has anything on all my fields of battle, made such an impression on me. I stopped involuntarily to ponder this spectacle unfolding before my eyes; that man I said to myself, perhaps has friends, perhaps he has them in the camp, in his company or battalion and yet he lies here abandoned by all except his dog."

"What is a man and what is the mystery of his impressions, I had ordered battles without emotion, battles to decide the fate of the army. I had seen, dry-eyed, movements executed which brought about the loss of a great number of our soldiers but here I was moved to tears. One thing is certain! At that moment I must have been more favorably disposed toward a suppliant enemy."

I guess the wonderful dog gets through to just about everyone.

DOGS' DAY is coming to Sylmar Square! On Saturday, June 3 at the beautiful Sylmar Square, California, a bevy of dogs representing a multitude of breeds, some like the Kuvasz, Saluki, Borzoi, and the Gordon Setter extremely rare and a roster of doggie attractions and activities that will keep dog-loving spectators enthralled from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. And that's for doggone sure! Jane Sewell and her famous Chihuahua, Cricket, will be on hand for two performances. This adorable canine mite has thrilled millions of TV viewers by Johnny Carson, Merv Griffin, and Tom Frandsen shows. There will be a doggie fashion parade, sled dog races, lovely Audrey Whetzel and her fantastic guide dog, Heide, from the International Guiding Eyes will talk about guide dogs and their unbounded service to the blind.

THERE WILL BE several performances of obedience trained dogs. Leo Handel, author of the briskly selling book, "A Dog Named Duke," is scheduled for a personal
