

Bridge Buffet Club Benefit For Indians

Launching the first Federation activity of the season is Mrs. Paul Chandler, Indian Affairs Chairman of the Redondo Beach Woman's Club, CFWC, who is arranging a Bridge Buffet Benefit for her project at the Clubhouse, July 17, 12:30 p.m. She will be assisted by her co-chairman, Mrs. D. E. Wynkoop, and committee members, Mmes. Caesar Arca, Alston Bennett, Lorena Byrns, Melville McClaran, Wallace McIntosh, J. A. Polner and D. D. Ryus.

Plans are being formulated to visit a nearby reservation prior to the Christmas holidays, at which time supplies and gifts will be donated from the proceeds of this affair.

Return of Former Members Incentive for Group Party

The return of some of its former members was the incentive for a special party for a potluck group that has been meeting for the past 16 years.

The party was held on Sunday evening, July 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Post on 229th St.

Special party guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Moyers of Los Gatos, here for the holiday weekend; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leech of Newport Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Werner Sommers of Brea; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keeber, who had just returned to make their home here after two years in Boston.

After the dinner, members spent the evening catching up on family news. Others attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Jim Post, Ken Miller, John Barrington, Robert Tolson and Glenn Hall.

The group planned an annual outing for one Sunday in August when they, with their children, will spend the day at Newport Dunes.

District Officer Visits Rebekahs

District Deputy President of District 98 will pay her official visit to Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 this evening at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

Entertains Her Board

Mrs. Barbara Wade, retiring president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, entertained her board at a dinner Thursday evening at the Crown Imperial restaurant in appreciation for their efforts during her year.

The guest list included Mmes. Robert Vroman, Douglas Hedde, William Burchfield, Tony Borges, Carl Messmer, Robert Long, Gordon Gmur.

Others were Mmes. Jack Thayer, David Rozas, Richard Rankin, Leon Taylor, Gerald Glass, and club coordinators, Mrs. William Faulds and Mrs. Dean Sears.

Family Party

To celebrate the Fourth of July, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Witt entertained at a family party at their home in Hermosa Beach. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson and family, Mrs. Emma Roberts and Mr. Tom Quaggin. After the barbecue dinner, the group watched the firework display on the beach.

CROWNED "RAIL BIRD"

Visiting Hollywood Park to make arrangements for Catholic Daughter "Day at the Races" on July 13 were three members of Court St. Catherine, from left, Mmes. Charles Butterfield, public relations chairman putting the "rail bird" crown on Mrs. Paul Labonawski, vice-regent, as Mrs. Wilbur Camp, court member, enjoys the coronation. Anyone wishing to join the group for the day may call Mrs. Butterfield or Mrs. Robert Hammerle.

Catholic Daughters

To Watch Horses Run for Charity

Catholic Daughter "Day at the Races" has been set for tomorrow for two area courts, Court St. Catherine 1378, Torrance and Court Our Lady of Providence 1771, Hawthorne, at Hollywood Park, Inglewood.

A race will be named for the courts and the two Grand Regents, Mrs. Ellis Cook of Torrance and Mrs. Frank Lococo, Hawthorne, will go to the winner's circle to congratulate the jockey.

Mrs. Robert Hammerle is chairman of the event for the Torrance court and this will be the "Tour of the Month."

Members and friends will go by bus and will stop at the Kopper Kart for luncheon prior to going to the tracks.

Among members planning to attend from the local court are Mmes. Paul Labonawski, Carl Frederickson, J. W. Rick, Cecelia Young, Thomas Babbitt, William Healy, Paul DeCuir, Charles Butterfield, Wilbur Camp and Misses Felice and Kathryn Shaughnessy.

Anyone wishing to make the trip may call Mrs. Robert Hammerle or Mrs. Charles Butterfield for more information.

Mrs. C. Jones, Granddaughter To Visit Wales

Mrs. Chris Jones, 819 Sartori Ave., and her granddaughter, Miss Allison Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jones on Reynosa Dr., will leave by plane July 26 for Aberdare, South Wales.

Mrs. Jones, a native of Aberdare, is returning to her former home after nine years. This is Allison's first visit. They will spend seven weeks with Mrs. Jones' relatives in South Wales.

Kirst Family To Visit East

Mrs. Henry J. Kirst and children, Jeffrey, Bradley and Louise, 22643 Draille Drive, will leave by plane July 14 for Washington, D.C. and Virginia. They will be guests of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Robert Rood in Alexandria, Va., while visiting the nation's capitol and other historic places.

Christina Crandall Now Mrs. Lawrence Helphand

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo Beach was the setting for the afternoon wedding on June 11 when Miss Christina Crandall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne B. Crandall of Palmdale became the bride of Lawrence Helphand. Parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Helphand, are long-time residents of Torrance.

Rev. Paul C. Cox, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony at an altar decorated with candles and baskets of white gladioli

Mrs. Derouin Initiated In Regents' Club

Mrs. Louie Derouin, Junior Past Grand Regent of Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, was initiated recently into the Past Grand Regents Club of the Los Angeles Archdiocese.

The event was held at the Chalon Mart at a dinner meeting, followed by the initiation of all Grand Regents going out of office. This club is responsible for the Patriotic Mass held each year at the St. Vibiana's Cathedral in Los Angeles. Its purpose is also to keep the friendship of members alive and meets four times a year with a dinner meeting. Accompanying Mrs. Derouin from the local court were Mmes. Don Cowden, Richard Ban, Charles Butterfield and Robert Klages.

and stock. Candles were lighted by Brian Helphand, brother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Mell Tully, organist, played the nuptial music.

The bride wore a long white linen gown trimmed with beaded embroidery. Her mantilla was of Alencon lace and she carried a prayerbook and a bouquet of yellow daisies.

Miss Sally Crandall was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Gaye Kirkland, Peggy Hughes, Sharon Udoff and Gretchen Saunders. They wore long yellow gowns and carried white daisies. Sheri Lee Faulds, in a floor length white dress with matching bonnet, was flower girl.

Ivor Samson served as best man. Ushers were David Yeskin, David Hymen, John Wallace, and Keith Neilsen. Scott Helphand was ring bearer.

After their wedding trip to Apple Valley Inn, Mr. and Mrs. Helphand are at home at 1476 Cordova St., Pomona.
