Margot Melville Feted At Pre-Nuptial Shower

Miss Margot Melville, who will become the bride of Howard Achenbach, in a ceremony on May 25, at Nativity Catholic Church, was complimented last Wednesday evening at a kitchen shower given by Mrs. Delbert Thomsen and her daughter, Mrs. Mark Hunt.

The Thomsen home at 1447 El Prado was decorated in the bride-elect's colors, pink and white. An arrangement of pink and white flowers decorated the buffet table from which refreshments were served.

Brandts Home From Holiday In Mexico

Returning Saturday evening from a storybook vacation in Mexico, a trip won in a contest conducted recently by a metropolitan newspaper, were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brandt, 22913 Fonhill.

The couple flew to La Paz, Baja and Mazatlan and on to Mexico City. Their 16-day vacation trip also took them to Guadalajara and Puerto Vallarta. Among the many delightful experiences were a jungle cruise, ballet, bull fights, viewing the scenery and visits in Guadalajara and Puerto Vallarta where they were entertained by American friends, now retired, and living in the resorts.

Arriving with gifts and good wishes for the future bride were Mmes. John Melville, Earl Bruner, Edwin Bergman, Pat Neville, William Boswell, Eugene Cook, Gil Derouin, Viola Shaw, Charles Ward, Kenneth Dudley, Laura Felker and Harvel Guttenfelder.

Others were Mmes. Sidney Hopkins, Don Hyde, Jack Martyr, Mel Miller, John Bibler, Robert Moffitt, Frank Paour, George Probert, Ralph Rugraff, Dorothy Rojo, Emma Roberts, William Schneider, May Sherry, Howard Schott, Roland Waldeck.

Invited, but unable to attend, were Mmes. M. A. Bauman, R. A. Bingham, J. W. Post, Paul Loranger and Dean Sears.

Vietnam Is Study Topic

Members of Preceptor Alpha Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will meet in the home of Mrs. Robert Marble, 756 W. 173rd Place, Gardena, at 8 p.m. Monday, May 13.

Miss Billie Lee Langley, niece of Mrs. Marble, will present a program entitled "Cuisine of Vietnam," and will tell of the customs of the people. Formerly with International Voluntary Services, Miss Langley spent four years in Vietnam, 1962 through 1964, returning in 1965 and staying through 1967. She has a BA degree in International Relations and taught English to the Vietnamese.

Following the program, a short business meeting will be held. Plans are being made by members to attend the state convention May 17, 18 and 19 at the International Hotel and to attend their birthday dinner, May 20, to be held at the Five Torches Restaurant, at which time the officers for the new year 1968-69 will be installed. Several members are planning to attend the Southern California Council breakfast Sunday morning, May 26, at the Elks Club, Long Beach.

ADVERTISING SHOW

Mrs. Steve Allen of Torrance, poster chairman for the Wingrock School's May 18 Horse Show, silk screens a poster advertising the show as two four-year-olds, Vickie Allen, left, and Devon Hardwick, look on. The event will take place at the Empty Saddle Club.

Bon Voyage Party for M. Baumans

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman left Saturday for a three weeks vacation in Hawaii. They are headquartered in Honolulu and plan to tour the outer islands.

On Saturday evening, prior to their departure, the vacationers were complimented at a surprise bon voyage party given by Mr. and Mrs. William Boswell at their home, 2842 Onrado.

Guests arrived wearing island costumes, and cocktails and dinner were served amid festive Hawaiian decorations.

With the Boswells and Baumans for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Cook, Messrs. and Mmes.

John Melville, Dean Sears, Delbert Thomsen, Mrs. Paul Loranger and her sister, Mrs. Arthur E. Sevald of Detroit, Mich. who is spending several weeks here.
