Pocahontas Council Meets

Ah We Na Sa Council, Degree of Pocahontas, will close the year with its meeting Monday evening when Mrs. Berdell Whalen, incoming Pocahontas, will appoint officers for the coming term.
Also on the agenda will be the recommendation of a Deputy Great Pocahontas. Serving as deputy for this council for its initial year of operation has been Sarah Bantum of Inglewood, a member for almost 30 years.

Reporting will be Mrs. Harry Stiers, chairman for Retarded Children, who made the presentation to the Pennies Research fund at the CCRC convention in May. Mrs. Margaret Heath of Wilmington, who was in charge of procuring draperies for the chapel of the Veterans Administration Hospital in Fresno, will also report. The chapel has been furnished by the Degree of Pocahontas, including the organ.

At the request of Pocahontas Mrs. Max Eakin, members are making a final drive in the collection of paper towels, paper drinking cups and facial tissues for the Garden Valley Training Center.

Nancy Eakin is the first member to be graduated from a high school since her induction and will be presented with a gift.
Great Trustee Gene Barton and her husband, Kerby Barton, of the Mattawa Council of Long Beach will be on hand to make a special presentation.
