$10,000 in Drugs Seized by Police

Hundreds of capsules, believed to contain LSD and mescaline, were confiscated Friday by Torrance police following the arrest of two youths at 22600 Crenshaw Blvd. Estimated street value of the capsules is $10,000.

Taken into custody at 6 p.m. were Michael Ryan, 20, of 23504 Naffa St., Wilmington, and Albert Gary Orseth, 20, of 1330 W. 2nd St., San Pedro. The arrests culminated an intensive month-long investigation by Torrance police and state narcotics agents.

Seized were 200 capsules of what appeared to be mescaline and more than 1,000 capsules resembling LSD. Ryan and Orseth were charged with possession of dangerous drugs for sale and the sale of dangerous drugs.

Officers stated that additional arrests may be made soon.

Realtors Name New President

Emmette T. Gatewood Jr. of Los Gatos has been elected 1969 president of the 46,000-member California Real Estate Association Thursday during the closing session of the CREA convention in San Francisco. He will take office in January.

The president-elect has two general real estate brokerage offices under the firm name of Gatewood Realty, his main office in Los Gatos, a branch in Saratoga. He founded the firm in 1952.

Robert G. Adamson of Los Angeles was re-elected treasurer for the second consecutive term. H. Jackson Pontius of Arcadia was re-elected vice president and state secretary for the fourteenth year.

THE ASSOCIATION also paid tribute to D. Ray Grable, San Diego Realtor, by electing him honorary president. Chairman of the CREA Property Taxation Committee for many years, Grable was especially active in legislative affairs. He is an Honorary Director-For-Life of the association and a past vice president.

Paul T. Bannai of Gardena was elected regional vice president for District 21, which includes the Torrance-Lomita area.
