The 50th year will open with no special fanfare but Mayor Sam Yorty has issued a proclamation declaring the

Tips Given For a Safe Halloween

"Clothing, costumes and children can burn." County Fire Chief Geith E. Klinger warned today as he issued a Halloween fire safety reminder.

Parents should purchase only cloth costumes which are marked "fire retardant" or made of material which cannot burn.

Flimsy and fluffy costumes especially can be ignited by contact with a heater or a candle. Children's visibility often is obscured by masks and the youngsters can brush against a flame or heat source.

"Do not let your children carry jack-o-lanterns with candles inside," he said. "Leave these in a safe place at home where the candle cannot ignite a child's clothes."
