

Cardiac Unit Expansion

Tall silver candelabra, holding lighted tapers, centering each table in the Ambassador room of the Ambassador Hotel will create the elegant setting for the eighth annual Candlelight Ball on Saturday evening, Nov. 2.

This gala social event is being presented by the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary to raise funds for the expansion of the cardiac intensive care unit at the South Bay Hospital, announces Mrs. Joseph Fischer, auxiliary president.

Mrs. Thomas Rupert is serving as chairman of the benefit and is being assisted by Mrs. Robert Hanwell, co-chairman.

Serving on the Candlelight Ball committee are Mmes. V. G. Cardoza, Arnold Morrison, Emily Hack, Edgar Sherman, Irving Kurman, Joseph Manning, Edgar Yopp, Roy Galli, Willis Blackstone, E. J. Armend, John Adams, and Paul McGrath, who also served as the auxiliary's ways and means chairman.

A souvenir booklet, with the history of the hospital and the auxiliary, will be presented to each guest. The booklet has been prepared by Mrs. Gayle Martin and Mrs. Dennis Bundy.

The public is invited to attend and may make reservations by calling Mrs. Roy Galli in Torrance.

Invitations in The Mail

Invitations to the Auxiliary's eighth annual Candlelight Ball were placed in the mail last week. Shown at an invitation addressing session are, from left, Mmes. Joseph Manning, publicity chairman; Ed Young, entertainment chairman, and Paul McGrath, ways and means chairman. Proceeds will be used to expand the cardiac unit at the South Bay Hospital. Touch For Good Luck

Two Alpha Delta Pi alumnae from the South Bay, Mrs. Frank Kates of Palos Verdes Peninsula, seated, and Mrs. Albert Smith of Torrance, get a closeup look at a sulky and give it a touch for luck as they plan to attend the Harness Races benefit at Hollywood Park Nov. 2. All proceeds will go to the McCausland-Holmes Foundation for scholarships for medical students.

Auxiliary Presents Annual Candlelight Ball

As Candles Glow

Myriads of candles will cast a glow over the Ambassador Room of the Ambassador Hotel next Saturday evening when South Bay Hospital Auxiliary members, their husbands, and guests dine and dance at the benefit Candlelight Ball. Choosing silver candelabra, to be used as centerpieces, are, standing, Mmes. Gerald Cardoza; seated, Thomas Rupert, chairman of the Ball and, on the floor, Mrs. John Adams, treasurer.

Admire Door Prize Painting

Days of Gin, 22 Skidoo

Flappers and beaux of the "Roaring 20s" era will be parts played by the Jaycees, Jaycettes and guests when they gather at the Retail Clerks Hall, 25949 Bellefonte, Harbor City, Saturday, Nov. 2, at 8 p.m. for a "shindig." There will be "just for fun" casino games, dancing to band music, and a midnight buffet. Flappers stirring up the "punch" are, from left, Mmes. Phil Shacifer, William Ritchie, Mike Zappitelli and Leon Taylor. Others on the committee are Mmes. Ernie Gore, Chuck Batelle and Dick Smart. Open to the public, tickets will be sold at the door. Money will go to the club's charity projects. (Press-Herald Photo)

Alpha Delta Alums

To Cheer Sulkies For Scholarships

Some 3,500 Southland Alpha Delta Pi alumnae have invitations to "cheer the sulkies for philanthropy" Saturday, Nov. 2, at their eighth annual benefit at the harness races in Hollywood Park, Inglewood.

Chairman of the Turf Club event is Mrs. Robert L. Lander of South Pasadena. Also arranging the party is the sorority's Southern Area Council president, Mrs. Charles Ortega of Van Nuys, assisted by Mrs. Douglas Anderson of Burbank.

Party proceeds will go to the McCausland-Holmes Foundation, which creates scholarships and fellowships for medical students interested in research in medicine, surgery and related sciences. Projects are carried out through the USC School of Medicine. Dr. Frances Holmes of Los Angeles and Beverly Hills, co-founder of the non-profit foundation with her husband, Dr. A. M. McCausland, is an Alpha Delta Pi alumna.

Special hostesses for the event will include Mrs. J. Lary Kuhns of Woodland Hills, province president; Mrs. Howard S. Mason of Glendale, state membership chairman, and Mrs. William A. Morse of Laguna Beach, regional representative.

Area chairmen for the benefit, the Southern Area Council's sole fund raising event each year, are Mmes. Quinn Martin, Beverly Hills; Arnold L. Padilla, Hawthorne; Robert Wattenberger, Miraleste; Elaine Jones, Long Beach; Blake Sanborn, Whittier; George Wilson, Pasadena; Scott Anderson, Glendale, and Fred Sylvia, Orange.

South Bay Alpha Delta Pi planning to be on hand at post time are Mmes. Robert Dunaetz, Carl Tobin, Samuel Wernli and Arthur Clayton, Manhattan Beach; Robert Wattenberger, G. R. Fagan and Robert Ajklerman, Miraleste; George Towner, Gabe Schonning, Harry P. Smith and Frank Kates, Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Others are Mmes. Albert Smith and Keith Moody, Torrance; Grant Laney and Michael Spydell, San Pedro; Lewis Roland, Jerry Davidson and Don Fladseth, Rolling Hills Estates.
