School Drama Marks First Thanksgiving Celebration

Third grade students at Anza Elementary School added a new twist to an old holiday when they video-taped a school play commemorating Thanksgiving.

A series of pantomimes depicting the Pilgrims' adventures were presented in the school cafeteria "studio."

During the filming, members of the audience sat on the floor surrounding the playings, creating a "theater in the round" atmosphere.

Students were captured on film by their teacher, Mrs. Dena Shrank, for closed-circuit viewing in the classroom.
