

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

A-8

MAY 9, 1969

Poolside Social Event For Auxiliary

Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary will take time out from its busy service schedule for a poolside luncheon and a showing of the latest in pool and patio fashions for summer from the I. Magnin collection. The event will take place on the convent grounds Wednesday, May 14, at 11:30 a.m. In a planning session, on the scene, are from left, Mrs. Herschel Kopp, chairman, pushing a swan into the water, Mrs. Jerry Bogan, in her auxiliary uniform, with a bouquet of paper flowers to be used as decorations and Mrs. Tim McMillan, wearing a fashionable new bathing suit.

(Press-Herald Photo)

ORT's Cookbooks Displayed at

Mother's Day Event May 10

South Bay Chapter of Women's American ORT presents a new and original cookbook, "A Dash of Spice." The book contains the culinary secrets of the members of South Bay Chapter and their friends and relatives. It was compiled by a committee chaired by Mrs. Jerome Chatow with special assistants, Mrs. Keith Cooley and Mrs. Steven Laifman and art work by Mrs. Laurence Perrin.

Proceeds from this book will go toward maintaining and expanding ORT's 600 installations in 22 countries throughout the world consisting of schools of vocational and technical training programs.

The 400 recipes include exotic drinks, hors d'oeuvres, basic American dishes, gourmet European treats, salads, and fancy desserts. Each recipe has been successfully kitchen tested by its author.

The cookbooks will be displayed for the first time at the annual Mothers Day luncheon, "A Day for Dolls," tomorrow 11:30 a.m., at Jump 'n Jack Restaurant in Torrance. Along with the cookbooks, the luncheon program includes a lingerie fashion show. Each table will display a handmade doll to illustrate the theme, "A Day for Dolls."

Responsible for the decorations and luncheon arrangements are Mrs. Robert Hume, luncheon chairman, and her committee, Meses. Mel Schwartzburg, Mel Steinberg, Mel Weiner, Walter Reiling, and Paul Helfner.

Anyone interested in purchasing a cookbook may contact Mrs. Jerome Chatow.

Light, Beauty, Creation

Shower for Bride-elect

Miss Debra Agapito, who will become the bride of Jim Matteson on June 7 at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, was complimented at an afternoon bridal shower on Sunday, April 27, given by Mrs. Frank Schmidt at her home, 4406 Cathlam.

The future bride's colors of yellow and white were used in decorating the refreshment table and a profusion of large yellow and white paper daisies added to the decor.

Guest list for the party included relatives and friends, Meses. Frank Briganti, Louie Briganti, Carl Dean, Jim Schmidt, Jack Dean, William Agapito, James Matteson, and John Agapito, mother of the bride-elect.

Others were Meses. Rose Schmidt, Madeline Tarragouis, B. B. Reynolds, Jim Coniglio, Ken Lockman, James Burdick, Ernest Starkey, Greg Keiser, Larry Ganier, B. Ronning, William Hedrick, Terry Barnes, Al Montieth, Steve Henderson, William Speck.

Also, Meses Holly Lockman, Toni Briganti, Cindy Schmidt, Janet Montieth, Judi and Jill Dean, Lou Ann Coniglio, Nona Reynolds, Frankie, Tammy, and Stephanie Schmidt.

Torrance Jaycees and their Jaycettes have joined others from over the state for their annual convention in session this weekend at the Convention Center in Anaheim. Representing events on the full three-day schedule are local Jaycettes, from left, Meses John Dunbar (Saturday night) in evening gown for the dinner-dance; Ron Simkins (Sunday morning) in casuals on chaise lounge; Dave Schwartz (Saturday) in Jaycette uniform for business session; and Jim Altman, (Friday night) in baseball outfit, ready for the Angels game. Election of state officers will bring on many rallies.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Hindu Philosophy To Theme

Las Colinas' Show

Scheduled on May 13

Las Colinas Garden Club has turned to the Hindu philosophy "Karma" to theme its annual Spring Flower Show to be held this year at the South Bay Botanic Gardens on May 13 beginning at 1:30 p.m.

The horticulture philosophical view of India as applied to flowers and arrangements will be featured. Highlighting the decorations will be the avatars (faces) of two goddesses, Uma (soulful) and Parvati (sexy) expressing the aspects of "Love" and "Beauty."

The name tags and tea table appointments carry out the "Karma" with the use of colorful peacock feathers.

For the event, the Uma avatar was made by Mrs. Frank Carroll, using papier mache.

This is a standard show and will be judged by accredited judges. Ribbons will be awarded in all categories and there will be a sweepstakes prize.

There will also be a children's section in the show entered by the Girl Scout Troop, which is sponsored by Las Colinas.

Light, Beauty, Creation

The golden goddess Uma, signifying light, beauty and creation, will dominate Las Colinas Garden Club's Spring Flower Show, Saturday, May 13. In the flower show mood, wearing Indian saris, are from left, Meses Max Melwing, William Belford, and J. Douglas Adams admiring "Uma" made from papier mache by Mrs. Frank Carroll.

(Press-Herald Photo)

MRS. THOMAS J. WITHROW

Jean Giaquinto Weds Thomas J. Withrow

Miss Jean Elizabeth Giaquinto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Giaquinto, 2228 Gramercy, walked down the aisle of the Nativity Catholic Church, on the arm of her father, at 12:30 p.m. on April 26 to exchange marriage vows with Thomas Joseph Withrow.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Withrow, 3804 Creekside Dr., Nashville, Tenn.

The wedding gown was a floor-length empire creation of chantilace over an organza sheath. The chantilace created a cage silhouette at the back, which swept into a chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil cascaded from a headpiece of Chantilly lace petals edged in pearls with a cluster of small organza roses. Her teardrop bouquet was of white roses and daisies.

Mrs. Terry P. Gardner served as her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Meses Jo Anne Dowling, Susan Johnson and Rosemary Klein.

Ron Hinegardner performed the duties of best man and ushers were Al Gardiner, Terry Gardner and Leonard Jensen.

The Rev. John O'Byrne officiated at the double ring wedding ceremony and Miss Diane Dragotto was soloist.

The 150 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception and buffet held at the Torrance Elks Club.

Misses Jill and Judy O'Hara, life-long friends of the bride, came from their colleges to attend the wedding and to take care of the guest book.

The honeymoon was spent in Palm Springs and their new address is 20707 Anza Ave., Torrance.

The bride was graduated from Nativity grammar school, Bishop Montgomery High School and is a secretary with an engineering firm in Hawthorne.

Her husband attended schools in Nashville, served four years with the United States Navy, and is now employed by Northrop Norair in Hawthorne.

Races To Benefit SS Hope

Torrance Chapter of TWA Clipped Wings, former airlines hostesses, will join other chapters in southern California in sponsoring a benefit "Day at the Races" at Hollywood Park May 15. Proceeds will go to the SS Hope, Clipped Wings' national charity. At the track making plans are, from left, Meses D. J. Bollinger, William A. Horning and James B. Roberts. Mrs. Charles McInerney, 4729 Bindewald Rd., Torrance, is handling publicity and may be called for more information or tickets.

Where The Action Is

Torrance Jaycees and their Jaycettes have joined others from over the state for their annual convention in session this weekend at the Convention Center in Anaheim. Representing events on the full three-day schedule are local Jaycettes, from left, Meses John Dunbar (Saturday night) in evening gown for the dinner-dance; Ron Simkins (Sunday morning) in casuals on chaise lounge; Dave Schwartz (Saturday) in Jaycette uniform for business session; and Jim Altman, (Friday night) in baseball outfit, ready for the Angels game. Election of state officers will bring on many rallies.

"Carnival Time" School on Friday 5 to 8 p.m. will feature a parlor, salad bar, as well as a country store. Cook, Albert S. Vey Rushfeldt, carnival, promoting exciting games and prizes.

The May luncheon will be held at the Jack Allen, from 12 to 20 at noon. A business luncheon has been arranged by Mrs. C. Wedel, chairman.

Mrs. George announces the PTA-sponsored Adams School business meeting. Suitable books accepted.

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

More than 100 children participated in the music festival on Friday, May 8. The festival was held at the High School's regular PTA luncheon prior to the concert.

The upper grade group was directed by Mrs. and the band. New blue west with the letter 'E' by both groups were sewn by the direction of Denny Haas, v. the Haas home.

HICKORY PTA

Recently installed Hickory PTA set Ruzek, Char Ruhlrow, Char Hicks, Steven Hicks, Steven Dalis, recored James Mer Jack Salling, Frank Tyrrell, "Involvement" the theme for spring festival. High School. Hickory's orchestra and choral group short business precede the program.

MADRONA PTA

Madrona's Music Festival Thursday, May 14 in the school. Madrona students music-filled program a brief business Madrona PTA will present its ship to a Torrance area formerly School. Fourth mothers will be Mrs. Robert making plans grade graduation sored by the MADRONA PTA

An ice cream house will high meeting of the Festivities will in the school c

Entertaining ning in the c will be the s under the di Groves and truses, with M directing. All open to the itation.

Mrs. Evelyn stall the new 1969-70 year.

Recent winn drive, who cream bars p PTA, were Mr bata's third g Mrs. Evelyn grade class.

NORTHERN

Presenting fr the homemak of North High the direction of Crews, and s ments under Mrs. Barbara the highlights High PTA met Wednesday, M display of indi be under the Guy Sherod.

Installation o year 1969-70 w Mrs. Perry mentarian.

PARKWAY S

Parkway Sch its annual "Sp